Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2015

1. Nature of Business

Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is a full-service broker-dealer that serves institutional investors, credit unions, and individual investors located throughout the United States. The Company is registered under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company's operations consist primarily of engaging in principal transactions and underwriting certificates of deposit.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basic of Accounting

The Company prepares its financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, which requires the use of the accrual method of accounting. Under this accounting method, revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized when incurred.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Estimates are based on several factors including the facts and circumstances available at the time the estimates are made, historical experience, risk of loss, general economic conditions and trends, and the assessment of the probable future outcome. Some of the more difficult, subjective and significant estimates include determinations of the useful lives of assets, allowance for doubtful accounts and present value assumptions. Estimates and assumptions are reviewed periodically, and the effects of changes, if any, are reflected in the statement of income in the period that they are determined. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events for recognition or disclosure through the date of the financial statements issuance.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of financial condition and statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments, consisting mostly of certificates of deposit, which are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and have a maturity of three months or less when acquired to be cash equivalents.

Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company places its cash and cash equivalents with four financial institutions that have offices located in New Jersey and New York. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents. The Company's cash and cash equivalents are placed with high credit quality financial institutions. At times, such balances may exceed federally insured limits of $250,000 per financial institution. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts, and it believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash and cash equivalents.

Customer Receivables

Accounts receivable from customers are recorded at the present value of estimated cash flows on the date the receivables were established. The Company receives collections on its customer receivables based on the length of the certificates of deposit. The present value discounts on the customer receivables are computed using assumptions made by management of the Company regarding the market and ultimate collectability of the receivables. Uncollectible accounts receivable are charged to operations during the period they are determined to be uncollectible. The Company wrote-off $0 during 2015. It is management's policy to review the outstanding accounts receivable from its customers and write-off any uncollectible accounts as they arise, which is not materially different from an allowance method. At December 31, 2015, there was no allowance for doubtful accounts.

Customer receivables consist of the following:

Receivables due in less than one year	$	624,009
Receivables due in more than one year		650,981
Less discounts to present value (ranging from 1% to 2%)		(22,735)
Total	$	1,252,255

Investments

The Company's investments are comprised of certificates of deposit and marketable securities.

Investments in certificates of deposit and marketable securities are bought and held principally for the purpose of selling them in the near term and are classified as trading securities. Trading securities are measured at fair value in the accompanying statement of financial condition.

The Company uses the specific identification method in determining realized gains and losses reflected in revenues under selling groups and other in the statement of income. The unrealized gains and losses are also reflected in revenues under selling groups and other in the statement of income.

Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2015

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for maintenance, repairs and betterments which do not materially prolong the normal useful life of an asset are charged to operations as incurred. Purchases of property and equipment and additions and betterments which substantially extend the useful life of the asset are capitalized at cost. Upon sale or other disposition of assets, the cost and related accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss, if any, is reflected in the statement of income. The Company provides for depreciation as follows:

Asset	Estimated Useful Life	Principle Method
Furniture and fixtures	7 years	Straight-line
Office equipment	3 -10 years	Straight-line

Due from Clearing Broker

The Company clears all securities transactions through an unaffiliated clearing broker on a fully disclosed basis. The amount due from the clearing broker relates to these transactions.

Revenue Recognition from Securities Transactions

The Company's revenue is derived from several classes of services summarized as follows:

Underwriting of Certificates of Deposit Revenue

Underwriting revenues are derived from underwriting services provided on the purchase of certificates of deposit and are recorded in accordance with the terms of the respective underwriting agreements.

Principal Transactions Revenue

Principal transactions revenue is derived from the mark up or mark down on securities purchased and re-sold by the Company. Principal transactions and the related revenue are recorded on a settlement-date basis, which is not materially different from trade-date basis.

Spread Sales on Certificates of Deposit Revenue

Spread Sales on certificates of deposit is derived from the interest rate of a particular certificate of deposit sold to a customer. The customer receives a portion of the interest income based upon the net rate while the remaining portion is paid to the Company. Revenue is recognized on a settlement-date basis, which is not materially different from trade-date basis.

3. Property and Equipment

Property and equipment consists of the following:

Furniture and fixtures	$	18,452

Net	$	72,233

Depreciation expense for 2015 was $ 55,618.

4. Investments

The Company measures its investments on a recurring basis at fair value.

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or the price that would be paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The framework that the authoritative guidance establishes for measuring fair value includes a hierarchy used to classify the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy prioritizes the inputs used in determining valuations into three levels. The level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 – Fair value is based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible to the Company for identical assets. These generally provide the most reliable evidence and are used to measure fair value whenever available.

Level 2 – Fair value is based on significant inputs, other than Level 1 inputs, that are observable either directly or indirectly for substantially the full term of the asset through corroboration with observable market data. Level 2 inputs include quoted market prices in active markets for similar assets, quoted market prices in markets that are not active for identical or similar assets, and other observable inputs.

Level 3 – Fair value would be based on significant unobservable inputs. Examples of valuation methodologies that would result in Level 3 classification include option pricing models, discounted cash flows, and other similar techniques.

Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.

5. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital of $15,096,581, which was $14,996,581 in excess of its required net capital of $100,000. The Company's net capital ratio was .0234 to 1.

6. Off-Balance Sheet Risk

The security transactions of the Company's customers are introduced on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker-dealer. The Company holds no customer funds or securities. The clearing broker-dealer is responsible for execution, collection of and payment of funds, and receipt and delivery of securities relative to customer transactions. Off-balance-sheet risk exists with respect to these transactions due to the possibility that customers may be unable to fulfill their contractual commitments wherein the clearing broker-dealer may charge any related losses to the Company. The Company seeks to minimize this risk through procedures designed to monitor the creditworthiness of its customers and to ensure that the clearing broker-dealer executes customer transactions properly.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM REGARDING THE RULE 15c3-3 EXEMPTION REPORT

To the Stockholders of
Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements included in the accompanying Rule 15c3-3 Exemption Report, in which Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc. (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), (the "exemption provisions") and the Company stated that the Company met the identified exemption provisions throughout the year ended December 31, 2015 without exception. Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.'s management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Financial Northeastern Securities, Inc.'s compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
