CHESTNUT SECURITIES, INC.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1 - Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business

Chestnut Securities, Inc. (the "Company") is a registered broker-dealer with the Securities and Exchange Commission and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. The Company does not carry security accounts for clients or perform custodial functions related to client securities. The Company engages in investment banking activities, including the structuring and arranging for financing of venture capital transactions. The Company also provides oversight and analysis functions for client investment accounts held at other firms.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through February 29, 2016, the date the financial statements were approved and authorized for issuance by management, and determined that there have been no subsequent events that would require recognition in the financial statements or disclosure in the notes to the financial statements.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company maintains cash in demand deposit accounts with federally insured banks. At times, the balances in these accounts may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has defined cash equivalents as money market funds and highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, that are not held for sale in the ordinary course of business. Cash equivalents may include investments which are not insured or otherwise guaranteed by the government of the United States of America. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe it is exposed to any significant credit risk related to cash and cash equivalents.

Accounts Receivable

The Company carries its accounts receivable at amounts invoiced for services less an allowance for doubtful accounts, if necessary. Accounts receivable balances are written off after it is evident that collection efforts have little or no chance of immediate success. The Company does not require collateral or charge interest on accounts receivable. The Company did not carry any accounts receivable at December 31, 2015.

CHESTNUT SECURITIES, INC.

Revenue Recognition

The Company derives all of its revenues from the performance of investment banking services. Investment banking services include underwriting counseling, securities distribution, placement of securities and post placement consulting services. The Company enters into contracts with clients for periods usually lasting one year or less. Revenue is recognized when fixed or determinable under the contract terms, the services are provided or ratably over the term of the contract, and collection is reasonably assured. Reimbursements, including those that pertain to travel and other out-of-pocket expenses, are also included in investment banking fees. Deferred revenue represents amounts billed or collected in advance of services being rendered or the completion of the service.

Income Taxes

For federal and state income tax purposes, the Company has elected under the Internal Revenue Code, with the consent of its shareholder, to be treated as an S Corporation and, as a result, its shareholder includes the income or loss of the Company in their individual income tax returns. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in the financial statements. Income taxes may be provided for state income tax purposes when certain revenue thresholds are achieved. No state income taxes are required to be provided for in 2015.

Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America prescribe the threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in the financial statements. For purposes of this standard, the pass-through status of the entity at the federal and state level is considered a tax position. An additional liability for uncertain tax positions ("UTPs") is recognized and recorded as a component of current income tax expense for differences between financial and income tax reporting positions which do not meet this threshold. Any interest and penalties related to UTPs are recorded as a component of income tax expense. The Company has reviewed its income tax positions, and has not identified any material UTPs and thus has not recorded any additional liability at December 31, 2015.

The Company files income tax returns in federal and state jurisdictions. The Company's income tax returns are subject to examination by taxing authorities. Because the application of tax laws and regulations to many types of transactions is susceptible to varying interpretations, amounts reported could be changed at a later date upon final determination by taxing authorities. The Company is no longer subject to examinations by tax authorities for years prior to 2012. Currently, there are no income tax audits in process.

CHESTNUT SECURITIES, INC.

Note 2 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (Rule 15c3-1). Rule 15c3-1 requires the maintenance of minimum net capital of the greater of 6 2/3% of the Company's total aggregate indebtedness, as defined, or $5,000, and that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2015 the Company had net capital of $274,584, which was $269,584 in excess of its minimum net capital requirement (see Schedule I). The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital is .24 to 1.

Note 3 - Related Party Transactions

The Company has an agreement with Chestnut Partners, Inc. ("CPI"), an entity under common control, whereby CPI has agreed to fund certain administrative expenses of the Company. Under the agreement, which is renewable annually, the Company reimburses CPI administrative expenses funded on its behalf. During 2015, the Company reimbursed CPI for administrative expenses incurred in the amount of approximately $1,320,000 and is included in the amount reported on the accompanying statement of loss.

Note 4 - Concentrations

Revenues

Three clients represented approximately 37%, 18%, and 16%, respectively, of the Company's revenues from investment banking services during 2015.

Note 5 - Supplemental Cash Flow Information

No cash was paid for interest or state income taxes in 2015.
