Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Managing Director
Marriott Securities, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Marriott Securities, LLC, as of December 31, 2015, and the related notes to the financial statement. This financial statement is the responsibility of Marriott Securities, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the statement of financial condition is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the statement of financial position. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall statement of financial position presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Marriott Securities, LLC as of December 31, 2015, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Marriott Securities, LLC

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 1—Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of business: Marriott Securities, LLC (the Company) was formed under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia as a single member limited liability company owned by Marriott Management, LLC (the Parent). The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Company brokers private placements of securities and offers merger and acquisition advisory services.

The Company is governed by the Operating Agreement of Marriott Securities, LLC. According to the terms of the Operating Agreement, after the initial contributions are made, the member has no further obligation to contribute additional amounts of capital to the Company. In addition, the liability of the member of the Company is limited to the member's equity.

A summary of the Company's significant accounting policies is as follows:

Basis of accounting: The Company's financial statement is prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP).

Cash equivalents: The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. Such amounts are valued at cost, which approximates fair value.

Income taxes: The Company is a single member limited liability company and is not a tax filing or paying entity for income tax purposes.

Use of estimates: The preparation of a financial statement in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Customer security transactions: The Company does not handle customer funds or securities and is exempt from the provisions of the Customer Protection Rule (Rule 15c3-3) under paragraph k(2)(i).

Note 2—Note Receivable From Client

Note receivable from client consists of amounts earned from providing advisory services. The note receivable has an evaluation date of September 30, 2017 at which time the remaining principal on the note will either be extended to August 7, 2019 or be forgiven. The note receivable balance will continue to be monitored quarterly by the Company to ensure the amount presented represents the Company's best estimate of fair value as of each reporting date. The Company received cash payments of $15,487 that were applied to the principal balance on the note receivable during the year ended December 31, 2015.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

Note 3—Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. The rule also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash distributions paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital and required net capital of $93,750 and $5,000, respectively. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio at December 31, 2015 was 0.13 to 1.

Note 4—Related Party Transactions

The Company participates in a Management Services Agreement with Marriott & Co., LLC, a limited liability company wholly owned by Marriott Management, LLC. Under the terms of this agreement, the Company is provided with office space, furnishings, administrative personnel, and access to the equipment and supplies necessary to operate the business on a cost-reimbursement basis. The expenses incurred by Marriott & Co., LLC were allocated at cost, in proportion to the Company's utilization.

On December 31, 2015 there was a balance due from Marriott & Co., LLC of $53,201.

Note 5—Subsequent Events

Subsequent events were evaluated through the date the financial statement was issued which was February 23, 2016.
