NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2015

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES:

Operations

James L. Finefrock and Associates Corp. (an Ohio Corporation) is a broker-dealer registered with the SEC and the FINRA. The Company is engaged primarily in raising funds for investment advisers and investment companies, and selling partnership units in real estate and other limited partnerships.

The Company is exempt from special reserve requirements for brokers and dealers under Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities and Exchange Commission. This exemption is claimed under Rule 15c3-3 Section (k) (2) (i).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Income Taxes

The amount of current and deferred taxes payable or refundable is recognized as of the date of the financial statements, utilizing currently enacted tax laws and rates. Deferred tax expenses or benefits are recognized in the financial statements for the changes in deferred tax liabilities or assets between years.

The Company recognizes and measures its unrecognized tax benefits in accordance with FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under that guidance the Company assesses the likelihood, based on their technical merit, that tax positions will be sustained upon examination based on the facts, circumstances and information available at the end of each period. The measurement of unrecognized tax benefits is adjusted when new information is available, or when an event occurs that requires a change.

Currently, tax years ended December 31, 2014, 2013 and 2012 are open and subject to examination by the taxing authorities.

Statement of Cash Flows

For purposes of reporting cash flows, the Company considers cash on hand, and cash in checking and savings accounts to be cash equivalents.

Date of Management's Review

Subsequent Events have been evaluated through February 9, 2016, which is the date the financial statement was available to be issued.
