REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Management and Member of CPIBD, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of CPIBD, LLC as of December 31, 2015. This financial statement is the responsibility of CPIBD, LLC 's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of CPIBD, LLC as of December 31, 2015, in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Notes to Financial Statements

1. Organization and Nature of Business

CPIBD, LLC (the "Company") is organized as a Delaware Limited Liability Company, is a registered broker-dealer under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"). The Company provides advisory services and arranges private placement of securities for institutional clients. In 2013, the Company was approved of performing Underwriting Services. The Company is a wholly owned subsidiary of Compass Partners Advisors, LLP FKA Compass Advisers, LLP (the "Member" or "Parent"), the sole member of the Company.

The Company is exempt from Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (reserve requirements for brokers and dealers) under the provisions of its subparagraph (k)(2)(i), in that the Company does not hold funds or securities for customers.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and in the bank, as well as all short-term securities held for the primary purpose of general liquidity. Such securities normally mature within three months from the date of acquisition.

Fees Receivable

The Company carries its fees receivable at cost less an allowance for doubtful accounts. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its fees receivable and may establish an allowance for doubtful accounts, based on a history of past write-offs and collections and current credit conditions. Accounts are deemed delinquent when payments are not received in accordance with their respective contracted payment schedule. As of December 31, 2015, all fees receivable were collected.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized on the accrual basis, generally when the underlying investment transactions are consummated and placement fees are earned.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such is treated as a disregarded entity for tax purposes. Accordingly, profits and losses of the Company are passed through and reported on the sole owner's tax return. As a result, no provision for income taxes is reflected in these financial statements nor does the Company have uncertain tax positions. Tax returns are subject to examination by tax authorities for the periods 2011 and after. There are no income tax related penalties or interest included in these financial statements.

4. Net Capital Requirements

Pursuant to the basic uniform net capital provisions of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Company is required to maintain a minimum net capital, as defined in such provisions. Further, the provisions require that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness, as defined, to net capital shall not exceed 15 to 1. Net capital and the related net capital ratio may fluctuate on a daily basis. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital and net capital requirements of $30,790 and $5,000 respectively. The Company's aggregate indebtedness to net capital ratio was .66 to 1.

CPIBD, LLC

5. Related Party Transactions

The Company maintains an expense sharing agreement with its Parent whereby certain indirect costs of the parent, such as, payroll, health insurance, rent and office expenses are allocated to the Company. These costs totaled $9,620 in 2015. In addition, the Company earned a fee of $10,800 from the Parent for facilitating certain security transactions.

6. Credit Risk and Concentrations

Financial instruments that are potentially subject to credit risk include cash and cash equivalents. The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) insures the Company's bank account balance up to $250,000.

7. Fair Value of Assets and Liabilities

Professional standards define fair value, establish a consistent framework for measuring fair value, and expand disclosure requirements for fair value measurements. Due to the nature of the Company's assets and liabilities, there are no disclosures required under these standards.

The Company's assets, including cash and cash equivalents are carried at contracted values which approximate fair value. Similarly, accrued expenses are carried at contracted amounts, which approximate fair value.

8. Special Account for the Exclusive Benefit of Customers

The Company is not required to maintain a special reserve bank account for the exclusive benefit of customers since it meets the requirements of certain exemption provisions of Rule 15c3-3. The Company is a 'non-clearing firm' whose activities are limited to investment banking and advisory services. The Company does not hold any client accounts.

9. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated subsequent events through the date of financial statement issuance and has determined that there are no events requiring recognition or disclosure in these financial statements.
