Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a. Basis of Presentation

These financial statements were prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

b. Revenue Recognition

All fees and advisory revenues are based on the terms of the contracts and are recorded when the fees are earned, fixed or determinable, and collectible.

c. Income Taxes

The Company is a single member limited liability company and as such the results of its operations are included in the consolidated federal, state and local tax returns of the Parent. Accordingly, the Company has not provided for income taxes.

The Company evaluates tax positions taken or expected to be taken in the course of preparing the Company's financial statements to determine whether the tax positions are "more-likely-than-not" of being sustained upon examination by the applicable tax authority. The Company concluded that it has no uncertain tax positions to be recognized at this time. The Company's Parent remains subject to income tax audits for all open tax years.

3. Transactions with Related Parties

The Company maintains an expense sharing agreement with its Parent and other affiliates (together, the "Affiliates"). Pursuant to the agreement, the Affiliates fund the Company's professional fees and provide accounting, administration, office space, office equipment, employee services and other services. The Affiliates incur these costs and provide these services at no cost to the Company. The results of operations may have been materially different if the Company had operated as an independent company. Management has determined that the value of services provided to the Company for the year ended December 31, 2015 was approximately $570,000.

At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital of approximately $227,000 which exceeded the required net capital by approximately $222,000.
