2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

These financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP") which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Cash

All cash deposits are held by three financial institutions and, therefore, are subject to the credit risk at these financial institutions. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and does not believe there to be any significant credit risk with respect to these deposits.

Revenues and clearing and execution costs

All commissions and clearing and execution costs are recorded on a trade date basis.

Commissions Receivable

Commissions receivable are comprised of amounts due for processed trades. Receivables in excess of 30 days are determined to be past due. The Company performs a review of its receivables periodically to evaluate the need for an allowance for uncollectible accounts. The Company sold all of its receivables as of December 31, 2015 and accordingly, no balance remains on the accompanying statement of financial condition.
