(Updated through April 21, 2014)

ARTICLE I. OFFICES; REGISTERED AGENT

Sec. 1. Registered Office

The registered office of the Chicago Stock Exchange, Inc. (the "Corporation") in the State of Delaware shall be at such location within the State of Delaware as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 2. Other Offices

The Corporation may also have offices at such other places both within and without the State of Delaware as the Board Of Governors may from time to time determine or the business or purposes of the Corporation may require.

Amended February 9, 2005.

ARTICLE II. DIRECTORS

Sec. 1. Powers

The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors, except to the extent that the authority, powers and duties of such management shall be delegated to a committee or committees of the Corporation established pursuant to these bylaws or the rules. The Board shall have all powers necessary for the government of the Corporation, the regulation of the business conduct of Participants, and the promotion of the welfare, objects and purposes of the Corporation.

Amended Dec. 8, 1976; Nov. 20, 1979; Dec. 28, 1992; Mar. 16, 1998; Sept. 4, 2001; February 9, 2005.

Sec. 2. Number, Term of Office and Qualifications

(a) The number of directors of the Corporation shall be not less than ten (10) nor more than sixteen (16). The initial number of directors of the Corporation upon adoption of this bylaw shall be fourteen (14). The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time within the minimum and maximum number provided for in this Section 2 by a resolution adopted by a majority of the Board of Directors, without further amendment of this section; but no decrease shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. Directors need not be stockholders of the Corporation.

(b) At all times the Board of Directors shall consist of one (1) director who is the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation, directors who qualify as "Public Directors" and directors who qualify as "Participant Directors." The number of directors who must qualify as Public Directors shall be equal to one-half the number of directors comprising the entire board of directors (rounded up to the next whole number), and the directors who neither are the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation nor qualify as Public Directors shall be Participant Directors. As long as the Board of Directors of the Corporation consists of fourteen (14) directors, the Board of Directors shall consist of the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation, seven (7) directors who qualify as Public Directors and six (6) directors who qualify as Participant Directors. The term "Public Director" shall mean a director who (i) is not a Participant, or an officer, managing member, partner or employee of an entity that is a Participant, (ii) is not an employee of the Corporation or any of its affiliates, (iii) is not broker or dealer or an officer or employee of a broker or dealer, or (iv) does not have any other material business relationship with (x) CHX Holdings, Inc., the Corporation or any of their affiliates or (y) any broker or dealer. The term "Participant Director" shall mean a director who is a Participant or an officer, managing member or partner of an entity that is a Participant. The term "Participant" shall mean any individual, corporation, partnership or other entity that holds a permit issued by the Corporation to trade securities on the market operated by the Corporation. A director shall qualify as a Public Director or Participant Director only so long as such director meets the requirements for that position.

(c) The Board of Directors shall be divided into three classes, which shall be as nearly equal in number and make-up among Public Directors and Participant Directors as the total number of directors then constituting the entire Board of Directors permits. The directors shall serve staggered three-year terms, with the term of office of one class expiring each year, as set forth in the certificate of incorporation of the Corporation. All directors shall continue in office after the expiration of their terms until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified, except in the event of early resignation, removal or disqualification.

(d) A director may serve for any number of terms, consecutive or otherwise.

Amended Sept. 23, 1983; Dec. 28, 1992; Apr. 12, 1994; Aug. 19, 1994; Jan. 5, 1996; Mar. 16, 1998; Sept. 4, 2001; February 9, 2005; November , 2009.

Sec. 3. Nomination and Election

(a) Candidates for election as director shall be nominated by the Nominating and Governance Committee. The Nominating and Governance Committee shall consist of two (2) Public Directors and two (2) STP Participant Directors, as defined below (one of whom must not be a representative of a firm that is a holder of Series A Preferred Stock of CHX Holdings, Inc.) The Board of Directors shall appoint the Nominating and Governance Committee.

(b) The Nominating and Governance Committee each year shall nominate directors for each director position standing for election at the annual meeting of stockholders that year. For positions requiring persons who qualify as Participant Directors, the Nominating and Governance Committee shall nominate only those persons whose names have been presented to, and approved by, the Participants pursuant to the procedures set forth in this bylaw.

(c) The Board of Directors shall identify one Participant Director position in each class which shall be subject to the petition process set forth in paragraphs (d)-(g) below (an "STP Participant Director"). The Nominating and Governance Committee shall nominate, to the STP Participant Director positions, only those persons whose names have been presented to, and approved by, the Participants pursuant to the procedures set forth in this bylaw.

(d) The Nominating and Governance Committee shall consult with the Chairman of the Board and the Chief Executive Officer, and shall hold at least two open meetings with Participants for the purpose of receiving recommendations of candidates for election to the STP Participant Director positions.

(e) Not later than 60 days prior to the date announced for the annual meeting of stockholders, the Nominating and Governance Committee shall report to the Secretary of the Corporation its initial nominees for the STP Participant Director positions on the Board of Directors. The Secretary shall promptly notify Participants of those initial nominees. Participant Firms may identify other candidates for the STP Participant Director positions by delivering to the Secretary, at least 35 days before the date announced for the annual meeting of stockholders, a written petition, which shall designate the candidate by name and office and shall be signed by at least ten (10)

Participant Firms supporting that petition. A Participant Firm may endorse as many candidates as there are STP Participant Director positions to be filled.

(f) If one or more valid petitions are received, the Secretary shall notify all Participants of record (as of the close of business on the day before the date of such notice) of the names of the initial nominees identified by the Nominating and Governance Committee and those additional candidates identified by Participants as well as of the time and date of an election, to be held at least 20 days prior to the annual stockholders' meeting, to confirm the Participants' selections of nominees for STP Participant Directors. In such elections, each Participant Firm shall have one vote with respect to each STP Participant Director position that is to be filled at the annual stockholders' meeting. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. The individuals receiving the largest number of votes shall be the persons approved by the Participants as STP Participant Director nominees. The Secretary shall notify the Nominating and Governance Committee of the results of the election.

(g) If no valid petitions from the Participants are received by the date that is 35 days prior the date that is announced for to the annual meeting of stockholders, the Nominating and Governance Committee's initial nominees shall be deemed to be the persons approved by the Participants as the STP Participant Director nominees, and the Secretary shall so notify the Nominating and Governance Committee.

Amended February 9, 2005; September 25, 2006.

Sec. 4. Chairman

(a) The Board of Directors shall elect the Chairman of the Board from among the Chief Executive Officer and the Public Directors. The Chairman may serve as Chief Executive Officer but may hold no other office in the Corporation.

(b) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board. He may call special meetings of the Board of Directors or any committee of the Corporation. He shall be an ex-officio member, with the right to vote except as otherwise designated in these bylaws or the rules, of the Executive Committee. If the Chairman is not also the Chief Executive Officer, he shall also be an ex-officio member, with the right to vote, of the Audit Committee, the Regulatory Oversight Committee, the Finance Committee and the Compensation Committee. With the Vice Chairman, he shall, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, appoint the members of the Executive, Audit, Compensation and Finance Committees and nominate persons to fill any vacancy or newly-created directorship on the Board of Directors. He shall also have such other duties, authority and obligations as may be given to him by the Board of Directors.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 5. Vice Chairman

(a) The Vice Chairman shall be nominated by the Chairman and elected by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. The Chairman shall provide the name of his or her nominee to the Board, in writing, no later than five business days before the date on which the Board will be asked to vote to fill the position. The Vice Chairman may hold no other office in the Corporation.

(b) The Vice Chairman shall perform the functions of the Chairman in his absence or inability to act. With the Chairman, the Vice Chairman shall, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, appoint the members of the Executive, Audit, Compensation and Finance Committees. The Vice Chairman also shall, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, appoint the members of all other standing and special committees of the Corporation, except the Nominating and Governance Committee and the Judiciary Committee. With the Chairman, the Vice Chairman shall nominate persons to fill any vacancy or newly-created directorship on the Board of Directors. He shall also have such other duties, authority and obligations as may be given to him by the Board of Directors.

Amended February 9, 2005; April 21, 2014 (SR-CHX-2014-03).

Sec. 6. Vacancies

Any vacancy on the Board of Directors resulting from the death, retirement, resignation, disqualification or removal of a director, as well as any newly created directorship resulting from an increase in the number of directors which occurs between annual meetings of the stockholders at which directors are elected, shall be filled only with a person nominated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Corporation and elected by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum or by a sole remaining director, except that those vacancies resulting from removal from office by a vote of the stockholders for cause may be filled by a vote of the stockholders at the same meeting at which such removal occurs. The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall provide the names of nominees to fill vacancies to the Board, in writing, no later than five business days before the date on which the Board will be asked to vote to fill the vacancies. Any person chosen to fill a vacancy or newly-created directorship must qualify as the type of director (Public Director or Participant Director) associated with the seat on the Board being filled. A director chosen to fill a vacancy or newly-created directorship by the directors then in office shall hold office until the end of the next annual meeting of stockholders, at which time a director shall be elected by vote of the stockholders to fill any remaining portion of the term of the class to which such director belongs. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 7. Participation in Meeting, Action or Proceeding

No director shall be disqualified from participating in any meeting, action or proceeding of the Board of Directors by reason of having, either personally or as a member of any committee, made prior inquiry, examination or investigation of the subject under consideration, nor shall any member of any such committee be disqualified from acting as a director upon any appeal from a decision of any committee. But no director shall participate in the determination of any matter in which such director is personally interested. Participant Directors shall not be deemed to be personally interested in the determination of matters that may affect the Participants as a whole or certain groups of Participants, and Participant Directors shall not be prohibited from participating in such determinations in the normal course of conducting the Corporation's business. In a matter involving an issuer of a security listed or to be listed on the Exchange, a director shall be deemed to be "personally interested" if he or she is a director, officer or employee of the issuer of that security, and shall not participate in a decision relating to that matter. Other relationships between a director and an issuer shall be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

Amended Mar. 16, 1998; February 9, 2005; September 28, 2007.

Sec. 8. Place of Meetings; Mode

Any meeting of the Board of Directors may be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, as shall be designated in the notice of such meeting, but if no such designation is made, then the meeting will be held at the principal business office of the Corporation. Members of the Board of Directors or any committee designated by the Board, including the Executive Committee, may participate in a meeting of the Board or committee by conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, and such participation in a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 9. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held, with or without notice, at such time or place as may from time to time be specified in a resolution adopted by the Board or by the Executive Committee and at the time in effect.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 10. Special Meetings

(a) Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called on two days' notice to each director by the Chairman of the Board, the Vice Chairman of the Board or the Chief Executive Officer and shall be called by the Secretary upon the written request of any five directors.

(b) The person or persons calling a special meeting of the Board shall fix the time and place at which the meeting shall be held, and such time and place shall be specified in the notice of such meeting. Notice of any special meeting shall be given by written, electronic or telephonic means to each director at his or her business address or such other address as he or she may have advised the Secretary of the Corporation to use for such purpose. If delivered, notice shall be deemed to be given when delivered to such address or to the person to be notified. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be given two business days after deposit in the United States mail, postage prepaid, of a letter addressed to the appropriate location. Notice may also be given by telephone, electronic transmission or other means not specified in this section, and in each such case shall be deemed to be given when actually received by the director to be notified.

Amended Nov. 20, 1979; Dec. 28, 1992; Sept. 4, 2001; February 9, 2005.

Sec. 11. Quorum and Action by the Board

At all meetings of the Board of Directors, one-half of the number of directors then in office (including not less than 50 percent of the Public Directors) shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and the act of a majority of the directors present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Board of Directors except as may be otherwise specifically provided by statute, the certificate of incorporation, the bylaws or the rules. If at least 50 percent of the Public Directors are (a) present at or (b) have waived their attendance for a meeting after receiving an agenda prior to such meeting, the requirement that not less than 50 percent of the Public Directors be present to constitute the quorum shall be deemed satisfied. If a quorum shall not be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors present at the meeting may adjourn the meeting, without notice other than announcement at the meeting, until a quorum shall be present.

Amended Mar. 16, 1998; February 9, 2005.

Sec. 12. Waiver of Notice

A written waiver of notice, signed by a director entitled to notice of a meeting of the Board of Directors, whether before or after the time of the meeting stated in the notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to that director. Attendance of a director at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee of the board of which the director is a member shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the director attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 13. Presumption of Assent

A director of the Corporation who is present at a duly convened meeting of the Board of Directors or at a committee of the Board at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be conclusively presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his or her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he or she shall file his or her written dissent to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment of the meeting or shall forward such dissent by registered or certified mail to the Secretary of the Corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 14. Informal Action

Unless otherwise restricted by statute, the certificate of incorporation or these bylaws, any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting, if a written consent to the action is signed by all of the directors and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Directors.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 15. Compensation

The directors may be paid their reasonable expenses, if any, of attendance at each meeting of the Board of Directors and at each meeting of a committee of the Board of Directors of which they are members. The Board of Directors, irrespective of any personal interest of any of its members, shall have authority to fix compensation of all directors for services to the Corporation as directors, officers or otherwise.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 16. Removal

Directors may be removed by the stockholders only as provided in the certificate of incorporation.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 17. Interpretation of Bylaws and Rules

The Board of Directors shall have power to interpret these bylaws and the rules of the Corporation and any interpretation made by it shall be final and conclusive.

Amended February 9, 2005.

ARTICLE III.

STOCKHOLDERS

Sec. 1. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the stockholders shall be held on a business day in April each year, or on such other dates determined by the Board of Directors, for the purpose of electing directors and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 2. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the stockholders for any purpose or purposes may be called by the Board of Directors or the Chief Executive Officer.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 3. Place of Meetings

Meetings of stockholders of the Corporation shall be held at such place, within or without the State of Delaware, as the Board of Directors may designate prior to the giving of notice of such meeting, but if no such designation is made, then the meeting shall be held at the principal business office of the Corporation; provided, however, that for any meeting of the stockholders for which a waiver of notice designating a place is signed by all of the stockholders, then that shall be the place for the holding of such meeting.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 4. Notice of Meetings

Unless otherwise prescribed by statute or by the certificate of incorporation, notice of each annual or special meeting of the stockholders, stating the date, time and place of the meeting of the stockholders and, in the case of a special meeting, the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called, shall be given to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting, not less than 10 nor more than 30 days before the date of the meeting, or in the case of a meeting called for the purpose of acting upon a merger or consolidation not less than 20 nor more than 30 days before the meeting. Only matters stated in the notice of a stockholder meeting shall be brought before that meeting. Any stockholder desiring that any matter be brought before an annual meeting of stockholders shall so notify the Secretary at least 35 days prior to the date announced for the meeting, and, if a proper subject for consideration by the stockholders, that matter shall be stated in the notice of the meeting as one of the purposes of the meeting. Notice shall be given by or at the direction of the Secretary. If mailed, this notice shall be deemed to be given when deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the stockholder at his or her address as it appears on the records of the Corporation. If delivered (rather than mailed) to the stockholder's address, the notice shall be deemed to be given when delivered. When a meeting is adjourned to another time or place, notice need not be given of the adjourned meeting if the time and place are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, unless the adjournment is for more than 30 days or unless a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 5. Waiver of Notice

A waiver of notice in writing signed by a stockholder entitled to such notice, whether before or after the time of the meeting stated in the notice, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice. Attendance of a stockholder in person or by proxy at a meeting of stockholders shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except when the stockholder or his or her proxy attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 6. Meeting of All Stockholders

If all of the stockholders shall meet at any time and place, either within or without the State of Delaware, and shall, in writing signed by all of the stockholders, waive notice of, and consent to the holding of, a meeting at such time and place, such meeting shall be valid without call or notice, and at such meeting any corporate action may be taken.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 7. Record Dates

(a) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any meeting of stockholders or any adjournment of such a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date on which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which record date shall not be more than 30 nor less than 10 days before the date of such meeting (or less than 20 days if a merger or consolidation is to be acted upon at such a meeting). If no record date is fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall be at the close of business on the day before the day on which notice is given, or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day before the day on which the meeting is held. A determination of stockholders of record entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of stockholders shall apply to any adjournment of the meeting; provided, however, that the Board of Directors may fix a new record date for the adjourned meeting.

(b) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date on which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors, and which date shall not be more than 10 days after the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted by the Board of Directors. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting, when no prior action by the Board of Directors is required by the certificate of incorporation of the Corporation or by statute, shall be the first date on which a signed written consent setting forth the action taken or proposed to be taken is delivered in the manner required by law to the Corporation at its registered office in the State of Delaware or at its principal place of business or to an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of the Corporation's stockholders are recorded. If no record date has been fixed by the Board of Directors and prior action by the Board of Directors is required by the certificate of incorporation or by statute, the record date for determining stockholders entitled to consent to corporate action in writing without a meeting shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution taking such prior action.

(c) In order that the Corporation may determine the stockholders entitled to receive payment of any dividend or other distribution or allotment of any rights or the stockholders entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any change, conversion or exchange of stock, or for the purpose of any other lawful action, the Board of Directors may fix a record date, which record date shall not precede the date upon which the resolution fixing the record date is adopted, and which record date shall not be more than 60 days prior to such action. If no record date is fixed, the record date for determining stockholders for any such purpose shall be at the close of business on the day on which the Board of Directors adopts the resolution relating to that purpose.

(d) Only those who shall be stockholders of record on the record date fixed pursuant to the provisions in this Section 7 shall be entitled to such notice of, and to vote at, such meeting and any adjournment of that meeting, or to consent to such corporate action in writing, or to receive payment of such dividend or other distribution, or to receive such allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights, as the case may be, even if stock is transferred on the books of the Corporation after the applicable record date.

The officer who has charge of the stock ledger of the Corporation shall prepare and make, at least 10 days before each meeting of stockholders, a complete list of the stockholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, and showing the address of and the number of shares registered in the name of each stockholder. Such list shall be open to the examination of any stockholder, for any purpose germane to the meeting, during ordinary business hours, for a period of at least 10 days prior to the meeting, either at a place within the municipality where the meeting is to be held, which place shall be specified in the notice of the meeting, or, if not so specified, at the place where said meeting is to be held, and the list shall be produced and kept at the time and place of meeting during the whole time of the meeting, for inspection by any stockholder who may be present.

Unless a different number of votes is required by statute or the certificate of incorporation of the Corporation, (a) if a quorum is present with respect to the election of directors, directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast, for the type of director associated with the seat on the Board being filled, by those stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors, and (b) in all matters other than the election of directors, if a quorum is present at any meeting of the stockholders, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by those stockholders present in person or by proxy shall be the act of the stockholders. Each report of an inspector shall be in writing and signed by him or a majority of them if there is more than one inspector acting at such meeting. If there is more than one inspector, the report of a majority shall be the report of the inspectors. The report of the inspector or inspectors on the number of shares represented at the meeting and the results of the voting shall be prima facie evidence thereof.

Amended February 9, 2005.

Sec. 14. Informal Action

Any corporate action upon which a vote of stockholders is required or permitted may be taken without a meeting, without prior notice and without a vote, if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote on that matter were present and voted and shall be delivered to the Corporation in the manner required by law at its registered office within the State of Delaware or at its principal place of business or to an officer or agent of the Corporation having custody of the book in which proceedings of meetings of stockholders of the Corporation are recorded. In addition to any committees of the Board of Directors which may be established as permitted by law, the bylaws or rules of the Corporation may provide for the establishment of one or more committees (the members of which shall be selected as provided in the bylaws and need not be members of the Board of Directors), each of which shall have the authority, powers and duties, in the management of the business and affairs of the Corporation, as the bylaws or rules shall provide.

(b) Number of Directors. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of not less than ten (10) nor more than sixteen (16) directors, the exact number to be fixed by the Board of Directors from time to time pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors.

(e) Election and Qualification of Directors. At each annual meeting of stockholders at which a quorum is present, the persons receiving a plurality of the votes cast, for the type of director associated with the seat on the board being filled, shall be directors. No director need be a stockholder.

(f) Removal of Directors. No director or class of directors may be removed from office by a vote of the stockholders at any time except for cause. For purposes of this section, "cause" shall mean only (i) a breach of a director's duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) actions resulting in liability under Section 174 of the General Corporation Law of Delaware, or (iv) transactions from which a director derived an improper personal benefit. Any director may be removed for cause by the holders of a majority of the shares of capital stock then entitled to be voted at an election of directors.

(g) Vacancies. Any vacancy on the Board of Directors resulting from the death, retirement, resignation, disqualification or removal of a director, as well as any newly created directorship resulting from an increase in the number of directors which occurs between annual meetings of the stockholders at which directors are elected, shall be filled only with a person nominated by the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Corporation and elected by a majority of the directors then in office, though less than a quorum or by a sole remaining director, except that those vacancies resulting from removal from office by a vote of the stockholders for cause may be filled by a vote of the stockholders at the same meeting at which such removal occurs. Any person chosen to fill a vacancy or newly-created directorship must qualify as the type of director (Public Director or Participant Director) associated with the seat on the board being filled. A director chosen to fill a vacancy or newly-created directorship by the directors then in office shall hold office until the end of the next annual meeting of stockholders, at which time a director shall be elected by vote of the stockholders to fill any remaining portion of the term of the class to which such director belongs. No decrease in the number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall shorten the term of any incumbent director.
