Independent Auditor's Report

Board of Directors
Quint Capital Corporation
230 Park Avenue
Suite 460
New York, NY 10169

Report on the Financial Statements

I have audited the accompanying Statement of Financial Condition of Quint Capital Corporation, as of December 31, 2016, filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the related notes to the financial statements. These financial statements are the responsibility of Quint Capital Corporation management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit.

Management's Responsibilities for the Financial Statement

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statement in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on my audit. I conducted my audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosure in the financial statement. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statement, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risks assessments, the audit considers internal control relevant to the Company's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statement in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting polices used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statement.

Quint Capital Corporation

Notes to Financial Statement
Year Ended December 31, 2016

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Quint Capital Corporation (The "Company") was formed in Florida on September 28, 1989. The Company is located in New York and is a registered broker-dealer and a registered investment adviser ("RIA") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The Company is a member of both the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") and the Securities Investors Protection Corporation ("SIPC") and operates under SEC Rule 15c3-3(k)(2)(ii), which provides that all funds and securities belonging to the Company's customers are handled by the clearing broker. Quint Capital, LLC, a limited liability company ("the Parent") is a New York State partnership formed in 2013. Quint Capital, LLC is the sole owner of Quint Capital Corporation.

The Company is authorized to engage in transactions in over-the counter corporate equities securities, corporate debt securities, mutual funds, variable life insurance and annuities on a fully disclosed basis. The Company is also authorized to act as a placement agent for securities offerings, an underwriter or selling group participant for corporate securities (other than mutual funds) and perform investment advisory services. The Company is a non-exchange member authorized to arrange transactions in listed securities by an exchange member. They also provide fee based consulting services in the areas of corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, RIA and insurance.

Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between January 1, 2016 and February 10, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the financial statements.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("US GAAP").

Accounts Receivable

The Company carries its accounts receivable at cost less an allowance for doubtful accounts. On a periodic basis, the Company evaluates its accounts receivable and establishes an allowance for doubtful accounts based on history of past write-offs and collections and current credit conditions. No allowance for doubtful accounts was required at December 31, 2016.

Revenue Recognition

Commission revenue (and the related clearing expenses) are recorded on a trade date basis. Revenue from sale of insurance based products are earned when the placement is completed and the income is reasonably determinable. Investment management fees are recognized when earned based on the terms of their respective agreements.

Income Taxes

The operations of the Company are included in the consolidated federal income tax return filed by the Parent. Federal income taxes are calculated as if the Company filed on a separate basis and the amount of current tax and/or benefit calculated is either remitted to or received from the Parent. The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with FASB ASC 740 "Income Taxes." Federal and state income taxes are calculated and recorded on the current period's activity in accordance with the tax laws and regulations that are in effect. Deferred tax expenses and benefits are recognized based on the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of assets and liabilities, using enacted tax rates in effect in the years the differences are expected to reverse.

The Company accounts for uncertainties in income taxes under the provisions of FASB ASC 740-10-05, "Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes" ("ASC"). The ASC clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements. The ASC prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attitude for the financial statement recognition and measurement of as tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The ASC provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with US GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Concentrations of Credit Risk

Cash

The Company maintains principally all cash balances in one financial institution which, at times may exceed the amount insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. The exposure to the Company is solely dependent upon daily bank balances and the respective strength of the financial institution. The Company has not incurred any losses on this account. At December 31, 2016, the amount in excess of insured limits was $0.

4. Due From Broker

Due from broker represents amounts due from a clearing organization, which included a clearing deposit of $50,068 as of December 31, 2016.

5. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital, and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2016, the Company had net capital of $60,454, which was $54,484 in excess of its required net capital of $5,970. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 148.13%.
