Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Member
Salomon Whitney LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Salomon Whitney LLC as of December 31, 2016 that is filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statement. This financial statement is the responsibility of Salomon Whitney LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statement based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statement referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Salomon Whitney LLC as of December 31, 2016 in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

SALOMON WHITNEY LLC

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

DECEMBER 31, 2016

1. Organization and Nature of Business

Salomon Whitney LLC (the “Company”) is a Limited Liability Company registered in the State of New York. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (“FINRA”). The Company is wholly-owned by Angia Holdings LLC.

The Company operates under the provisions of Paragraph (k) (2) (ii) of Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC and, accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that rule. Essentially, the requirements of Paragraph (k) (2) (ii) provide that the Company clears all transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis with a clearing broker/dealer, and promptly transmits all customer funds and securities to the clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries all of the accounts of the customers and maintains and preserves all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker/dealer.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

A. Revenue Recognition

Commission income (and the recognition of related income and expenses) is recorded on a settlement date basis, generally the third business day following the transaction date. There is no material difference between trade and settlement date.

B. Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers demand deposited money market funds to be cash and cash equivalents.

C. Use of Estimates

Management uses estimates and assumptions in preparing financial statements. Those estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses.

D. Commissions

Commissions and related clearing expenses are recorded on a settlement date basis as securities transactions occur.

E. Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets are carried at cost. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis using estimated useful lives. Additions and betterments are capitalized, whereas the costs of repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred.

3. Income Taxes

As a Limited Liability Company the Member is subject to any taxes on income that the Company may earn. Therefore, there is no provision nor benefit for income taxes in the accompanying Statement of Income.

4. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company was obligated under the terms of a lease for the period October 1, 2012 through December 31, 2016. Rent expense for the year ended December 31, 2016 amounted to $79,027.

Legal Matters

In the normal course of business certain legal actions have been brought against the Company. The company intends to vigorously defend these actions and that they are without merit and will not have a material effect.

5. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Credit Risk

As a securities broker, the Company is engaged in arranging for the buying and selling of securities for a diverse group of individual investors. The Company's transactions are introduced to a clearing broker/dealer for a split of commissions earned on a fully disclosed basis.

The Company's exposure to credit risk associated with non-performance of customers in fulfilling their contractual obligations pursuant to securities transactions can be directly impacted by volatile trading markets which may impair the customers' ability to satisfy its obligations to the Company and the Company's ability to liquidate the collateral at an amount equal to the original contracted amount.

The Company seeks to control the aforementioned risks by monitoring all transactions entered into on a daily basis and insuring that no incorrect trades are recorded.

6. Net Capital Requirement

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission's Net Capital Rule 15c3-1, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 1,500%. At December 31, 2016, the Company's net capital of $ 214,302 was $196,704 in excess of its required net capital of $17,598. The Company's capital ratio was 123%.

7. Reserve Requirement Computation

The Company is registered with FINRA as a Broker Dealer exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under Section (k)(2)(ii). Therefore, they are not required to compute 15c3-3 Reserve Requirements.

8. Possession and Control Requirements

The Company is registered with FINRA as a Broker Dealer exempt from SEC Rule 15c3-3 under Section(k)(2)(ii). Therefore, they are not subject to Possession Or Control Requirements under SEC Rule 15c3-3.

9. Subsequent Events

The Company has evaluated events and transactions that occurred between December 31, 2016 and February 28, 2017, which is the date the financial statements were available to be issued, for possible disclosure and recognition in the financial statements.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

The Member
Salomon Whitney LLC

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Salomon Whitney LLC which comprise the statement of financial condition as of December 31, 2016, and the related statements of income, changes in member's equity, changes in liabilities subordinated to claims of general creditors, and cash flows for the year then ended that are filed pursuant to Rule 17a-5 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the related notes to the financial statements. These financial statements are the responsibility of Salomon Whitney LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Salomon Whitney LLC as of December 31, 2016, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The Schedule I – Computation of Net Capital Under Rule 15c3-1 and Schedule II – Reconciliation Pursuant to Rule 17a-5(d)(4) has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Salomon Whitney LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Salomon Whitney LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplementary information we evaluated whether the supplementary information, including its form and content is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. 240.17a-5. In our opinion, the Computation of Net Capital is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying Exemption Report, in which (1) Salomon Whitney LLC identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. 15c3-3(k)(ii) under which Salomon Whitney LLC claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. 240.15c3-3(k)(2)(ii) and (2) Salomon Whitney LLC stated that Salomon Whitney LLC met the identified exemption provision throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Salomon Whitney LLC's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Salomon Whitney LLC's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the conditions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS' REPORT
ON APPLYING AGREED-UPON PROCEDURES

The Member
Salomon Whitney LLC

In accordance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, we have performed the procedures enumerated below with respect to the accompanying Schedule of Assessment and Payments to the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC) for the Year Ended December 31, 2016, which were agreed to by Salomon Whitney LLC and the Securities and Exchange Commission, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, and SIPC, solely to assist you in evaluating Salomon Whitney LLC's compliance with Rule 17a-5(e)(4).

Management is responsible for the compliance with those requirements. This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. The sufficiency of these procedures is solely the responsibility of those parties specified in this report. Consequently, we make no representation regarding the sufficiency of the procedures described below either for the purpose for which this report has been requested or for any other purpose. The procedures we performed are as follows:

1. Compared the listed assessment payments with respective cash disbursement records noting no exceptions.
2. Compared the amounts reported on the audited form X-17A-5 for the year ended December 31, 2016 with the amounts reported in the Form SIPC-7 for the year ended December 31, 2016 noting no exceptions.
3. Compared any adjustments reported in Form SIPC-7 with supporting schedules and working papers noting no exceptions.

4. Proved the arithmetical accuracy of the calculations reflected in Form SIPC-7 and in the related schedules and working papers supporting the adjustments noting no exceptions.
5. Compared the amount of any overpayment applied with the Form SIPC-7 on which it was computed noting no exceptions.

We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an examination, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion on compliance. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the specified parties listed above and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than those specified parties.
