FINANCE 500, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2016

1. Organization

Finance 500 Inc. (the Company) is a registered broker dealer incorporated under the laws of the State of California maintaining its principal office in Irvine, California. The Company operates as a registered broker dealer in securities under the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934. The Company acts as an introducing broker dealer and clears transactions with and for customers on a fully disclosed basis through a clearing broker dealer. The Company's primary business consists of underwriting and sales of certificates of deposit. The Company is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority ("FINRA"), and a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC").

2. Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP").

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates and may have impact on future periods.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Unless otherwise indicated, the fair value of all reported assets and liabilities that represent financial instruments approximate the carrying value of such amount.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid instruments with a maturity of three months or less from the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Commissions Receivable

Accounts receivable represents commissions due to the Company from the sale of securities. Management reviews accounts receivable and sets up an allowance for doubtful accounts when collection of a receivable becomes unlikely. The Company considers accounts receivable to be fully collectible and, accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts has been provided.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Maintenance, repairs, and minor renewals are charged against earnings. Additions and major renewals are capitalized. The cost and accumulated depreciation of assets sold or retired are removed from the respective accounts, and any gain or loss is reflected in earnings. Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method over five to seven years.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2016

2. Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Revenue Recognition

Brokerage commissions, 12b-1 fees, and related clearing and floor brokerage expenses are reported on a trade date basis.

Underwriting income is recorded when all significant items relating to the underwriting cycle have been completed and the amount of the underwriting revenue is reasonably determinable.

Income Taxes

Income taxes provide for the tax effects of transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes. Deferred taxes are recognized for differences between the basis of assets and liabilities for financial statement and income tax purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be deductible or taxable when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

The Company evaluates its tax positions for any potential uncertain tax positions. If applicable, the Company accrues for those positions identified which are not deemed more likely than not to be sustained if challenged and recognizes interest and penalties on any unrecognized tax benefits as a component of the provision for the income taxes.

3. Deposits with Clearing Organizations

The Company's clearing broker, RBC Correspondent Services ("RBC"), requires the Company maintain a minimum of $250,000 in cash deposits.

In June 2016, the Company discontinued its relationship with the clearing organization, COR Clearing LLC ("COR"). The Company still maintains a clearing deposit with COR in the amount of $14,061 until all accounts are moved or closed.

Therefore, as of December 31, 2016, the deposit at RBC and COR totaled $264,061.

4. Sub-Clearing Agreement

On April 16, 1996, the Company entered into a sub-clearing agreement with Camden Financial Services ("Camden") for purposes of clearing transactions with and for Camden's customers on a fully disclosed basis through COR. In June 2016, this sub-clearing agreement with Camden was terminated.

5. Pension Plan

The Company sponsors a SIMPLE IRA retirement savings plan which is open to all employees who have been with the Company for at least three months. The Company matches 2% of the employee's salary annually. The Company contributed $14,019 to the plan for the year ending December 31, 2016. This expense is included in compensation on the Statement of Operations.

FINANCE 500, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2016

6. Fair Value Measurements

The Fair Value Measurements Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to measurements involving significant unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- | | |
|---------|--|
| Level 1 | Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company has the ability to access at the measurement date. |
| Level 2 | Inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. |
| Level 3 | Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability. |

Determination of Fair Value

Under the Fair Value Measurements Topic of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, the Company bases its fair value on the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between participants at the measurement date. It is the Company's policy to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when developing fair value measurements, in accordance with the fair value hierarchy. Fair value measurements for assets and liabilities where there exists limited or no observable market data and, therefore, are based primarily upon management's own estimates, are often calculated based on current pricing policy, the economic and competitive environment, the characteristics of the asset or liability and other such factors. Therefore, the results cannot be determined with precision and may not be realized in an actual sale or immediate settlement of the asset or liability. Additionally, there may be inherent weaknesses in any calculation technique, and changes in the underlying assumptions used, including discount rates and estimates of future cash flows, that could significantly affect the results of current or future value.

Following is a description of valuation methodologies used for assets and liabilities recorded at fair value.

Cash and cash equivalents, short-term financial instruments, accounts receivable and accounts payable

The carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments.

Investments in Securities

Fair values are based on quoted market prices when available. When market prices are not available, fair value is generally estimated using discounted cash flow analyses, incorporating current market inputs for similar financial instruments. In instances where there is little or no market activity for the same or similar instruments, the Company estimates fair value using methods, models and assumptions that the managing member believes market participants would use to determine a current transaction price. These valuation techniques involve a high level of the managing member's estimation and judgment which become significant with increasingly complex instruments or pricing models. Where appropriate, adjustments are included to reflect the risk inherent in a particular methodology, model or input used.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2016

6. Fair Value Measurements (continued)

Assets and Liabilities Measured and Recognized at Fair Value on a Recurring Basis

The table below presents the amounts of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2016:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Assets at fair value:
Certificates of deposit	$12,959,705	-	-	$12,959,705

Certificates of deposit are based on quoted market prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities. The securities are purchased on margin with the clearing organizations and the related liability is included in the payable to clearing organization. During 2016, the Company incurred interest expense of $473,708 on such transactions.

7. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC's uniform net capital rule (Rule 15c3-1) which requires the Company to maintain a minimum net capital equal to or greater than $100,000 and a ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital not exceeding 15 to 1, both as defined. At December 31, 2016, the Company's net capital was $185,356, which exceeded the requirement by $85,356. At December 31, 2016, the Company's debt equity ratio computed in accordance with Rule 15c3-1(d) was 35.82%.

8. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Credit Risk

As a securities broker, the Company executes transactions with and on the behalf of customers. The Company introduces these transactions for clearance to a clearing firm on a fully disclosed basis. In the normal course of business, the Company's customer activities involve the execution of securities transactions and settlement by its clearing broker. The agreement between the Company and its clearing broker provides that the Company is obligated to assume any exposure related to nonperformance by its customers. These activities may expose the Company to off-balance-sheet risk in the event the customer is unable to fulfill its contracted obligations. In the event the customer fails to satisfy its obligations, the Company may be required to purchase or sell financial instruments at the prevailing market price in order to fulfill the customer's obligation. The Company seeks to control off-the-balance-sheet credit risk by monitoring its customer transaction and reviewing information it receives from its clearing broker on a daily basis and reserving for doubtful accounts when necessary.

9. Note Payable

On April 11, 2016, the Company entered into a sixty month equipment loan agreement that is secured by property and equipment. The unpaid principal on this note bears interest at a rate of 10.5% per annum. As of December 2016, $12,838 of the note principal of $106,968 was paid. During the year ended December 31, 2016, $7,831 of interest was expensed in relation to the note. As of December 31, 2016, the remaining unpaid balance of the note was $94,130. The future minimum payments under this note are as follows:

2021	4,534
Total	$ 94,130

FINANCE 500, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
DECEMBER 31, 2016

10. Risk Concentration

The Company's cash and cash equivalents consist of cash held at financial institutions where they each may exceed government insurance limits during the year. At December 31, 2016, the Company's uninsured cash balances totaled $56,485.

11. Related Party Transactions

11. Related Party Transactions (continued)

Subordinated Note

The Company has a $750,000 note subordinated to claims of general creditors pursuant to an agreement approved by the FINRA on July 1, 2016. The note bears interest of 10% and the interest is payable on July 1, 2019, the scheduled maturity date of the note. The subordinated loan is with the stockholder and is allowable in computing net capital under the SEC's uniform net capital rule. To the extent that it is required for the Company's continued compliance with minimum net capital requirements, it may not be repaid. During the year ended December 31, 2016, $37,500 of interest was accrued on the loan.

The Company's results of operations and financial position could differ significantly from those that would have been obtained if the entities were autonomous.

12. Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles which require recognition of deferred tax assets or liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that are included in the financial statements and tax returns in different periods. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal and state income tax examinations by tax authorities for tax years before 2013 and 2012, respectively.

Income tax expense shown in the accompanying statement of operations consists of the following:

	Federal	State	Total
Current	$ 2,221	$ 1,326	$ 3,547
Deferred	-	-	-
Total	$ 2,221	$ 1,326	$ 3,547

For the year ending December 31, 2016, federal net operating loss carryforwards were $1,001,464 and California net operating loss carryforwards were $988,018. Net operating loss carryforwards expire at various times beginning in 2020 through 2026. Utilization of the federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of $310,635 and $298,515, respectively, may be subject to an annual limitation due to the ownership change limitations provided by the Internal Revenue Code and similar state provisions. Any annual limitations may result in the expiration of net operating losses before utilization. The net operating loss carryforwards are limited to $62,640 per year for each federal and state.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities of the Company are primarily the result of these net operating loss carryforwards that may be used to offset future taxable income. As of December 31, 2016, a valuation allowance of $237,560 has been established for those deferred tax assets that will more likely than not be unrealized. Review Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholder
Finance 500, Inc.

We have reviewed management's statements, included in the accompanying SEA 15c3-3 Exemption Report, in which (1) Finance 500, Inc. (the "Company") identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which the Company claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: (k)(2)(ii) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) the Company stated that it met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. The Company's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about the Company's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(ii) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
