1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Bond Lane Partners, LLC (the Company) is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and became a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) on August 24, 2009. The Company was organized as a California limited liability company (LLC).

The Company engages in the business of structuring private placements of both debt and equity securities, on the client's behalf, and acts as a mergers and acquisitions consultant on a fee for service basis in the digital media industry.

Since the Company is a limited liability company, the member is not liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, unless the member has signed a specific guarantee.

Basis of Presentation

The Company keeps its books and prepares its financial statements on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Estimates

The presentation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when earned, normally fees are billed to clients when services are rendered and the Company has determined the fees to be collectible. Merger and acquisition revenue is derived when the Company introduces its clients to potential qualified investors to purchase either debt or

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Member of Bond Lane Partners, LLC

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of Bond Lane Partners, LLC as of December 31, 2015, and the related statements of operations, changes in member's equity, and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of Bond Lane Partners, LLC's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Bond Lane Partners, LLC as of December 31, 2015, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

The supplemental information contained in schedules 1, 2 and 3 has been subjected to audit procedures performed in conjunction with the audit of Bond Lane Partners, LLC's financial statements. The supplemental information is the responsibility of Bond Lane Partners, LLC's management. Our audit procedures included determining whether the supplemental information reconciles to the financial statements or the underlying accounting and other records, as applicable, and performing procedures to test the completeness and accuracy of the information presented in the supplemental information. In forming our opinion on the supplemental information, we evaluated whether the supplemental information, including its form and content, is presented in conformity with 17 C.F.R. §240.17a-5. In our opinion, the supplemental information is fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED
DECEMBER 31, 2015
AND REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

equity securities. Consulting revenue is derived by the Company when clients hire the Company to provide strategic planning and consulting services to clients' management and/or board of directors.

Accounts receivable

Accounts receivable is comprised of commissions, and are all considered collectible by the Company, no allowance is considered necessary.

Income Taxes

The Company is a limited liability company and as such, is not required to file its own tax return. Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is provided in the financial statements as they are the responsibility of the individual member.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary.

The member files income tax returns in the U.S. in both federal jurisdiction and state jurisdictions. With few exceptions, the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state or local tax examinations by tax authorities for tax years before 2012.

2. NET CAPITAL REQUIREMENTS

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital of $1,207,618, which was $1,202,618 in excess of its required net capital of $5,000. The Company's ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 0 to 1.

3. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The member received distributions of $2,161,800 for the year ended December 31, 2015 which is reflected on the statement of changes in member's equity. The Company paid $4,576 to related parties via expense sharing agreement for health and dental insurance in 2015.

4. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company has evaluated commitments and contingencies in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification 450, Contingencies (ASC 450) and Accounting Standards Codification 440, Commitments (ASC 440). Management has determined that no significant commitments and contingencies exist as of December 31, 2015.

5. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company evaluated subsequent events through the date its financial statements were issued. The Company did not identify any material subsequent events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in its financial statements.

6. CONCENTRATIONS

75.4% of the Company's revenue for the year ended December 31, 2015 was earned from three customers.
