Note 1 - Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Business:

Preferred Client Group, Inc. (the Company) was organized in June 1999 as a Texas corporation. The Company is a broker/dealer in securities registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC).

The Company operates pursuant to section (k)(2)(ii) exemptive provisions of Rule 15c3-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and accordingly, is exempt from the remaining provisions of that Rule. The Company does not hold customer funds or securities, but as an introducing broker or dealer, will clear securities transactions on behalf of customers on a fully disclosed basis through a clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker-dealer carries accounts of the customers and maintain and preserve all related books and records as are customarily kept by a clearing broker-dealer.

The Company's operations consist primarily of providing securities brokerage services to individuals located in the state of Texas.

Significant Accounting Policies:

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of the assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The debt securities are held for investment purposes and are recorded at fair value in accordance with FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures.

The Company's other financial asset and liability amounts reported in the statement of financial condition are short-term in nature and approximate fair value.

Note 1 - Nature of Business and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (Continued)

Debt Securities

The Company's debt securities are held for investment purposes and are recorded at fair value in accordance with FASB ASC 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures. The increase or decrease in fair value is credited or charged to operations.

Revenue

General securities commissions and related expenses are recorded on a trade date basis. Securities commissions also include interest rebates on customer accounts and other revenue related to customer accounts which is recorded on the trade date or is accrued as earned.

Mutual fund commissions and the related expenses are recorded on the trade date. Mutual fund trail fees are accrued as earned.

Income Taxes

The Company has elected to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, resulting in all the federal tax liabilities or benefits relating to the operations of the Company passing through to the individual shareholder.

As of September 30, 2017, open Federal tax years subject to examination include the tax years ended September 30, 2014 through September 30, 2016.

The Company is also a member of a combined group subject to state income taxes.

Note 2 - Transactions with Clearing Broker/Dealer

The Company has an agreement with a national clearing broker/dealer to provide clearing, execution and other related services. The agreement requires the Company to maintain a minimum of $100,000 as a deposit in an account with the clearing broker/dealer.

Note 3 - Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC Rule 15c3-1), which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. Rule 15c3-1 also provides that equity capital may not be withdrawn or cash dividends paid if the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At September 30, 2017, the Company had net capital of $136,280 which was $131,280 in excess of its net capital requirement of $5,000. The Company's net capital ratio was 0.4799 to 1.

Note 4 - Fair Value / Debt Securities

FASB ASC 820 defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and establishes a hierarchy of fair value inputs. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. A fair value measurement assumes that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, the most advantageous market. Valuation techniques that are consistent with the market, income or cost approach, as specified by FASB ASC 820, are used to measure fair value.

The fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels:

- Level 1. Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Company can access at the measurement date.
- Level 2. Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly.
- Level 3. Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

Following is a description of the valuation methodologies used for assets measured at fair value. There have been no changes in the methodologies used at September 30, 2017.

Debt securities: Valued by the Company's clearing broker/dealer using the actual trading prices of similar securities. When trading prices are not available for similar securities, the clearing broker/dealer uses market observable inputs in determining the valuation for a security based on underlying characteristics of the debt instrument.

Note 4 - Fair Value / Debt Securities (continued)

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Company's assets at fair value as of September 30, 2017

	Level	1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Debt Securities	$	-	$ 114,395	$-	$ 114,395

The debt securities consists of two municipal bonds, which mature in November 2017 and September 2027 with a pre-refund date in September 2018. Cost and fair values of the debt securities at September 30, 2017, are as follows:

Amortized Cost	Gross Unrealized Gains	Gross Unrealized Losses	Fair Value
$ 125,153	$	$ 10,758	$ 114,395

There were no transfers between level 1 and level 2 during the year.

There were no assets and liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis using significant unobservable inputs (level 3) during the year ended September 30, 2017.

Note 5 - Related Party Transactions/Economic Dependency/Concentration of Services

The sole shareholder generated all of the Company's revenue and accounted for all of the Company's compensation and related costs for the year ended September 30, 2017. The Company is economically dependent upon the sole shareholder due to the concentration of services provided by the sole shareholder.

The Company and the sole shareholder have entered into an expense sharing agreement (Agreement) effective January 1, 2017. The Agreement shall continue until canceled by either party. Under the Agreement, the sole shareholder and other related parties (Related Parties) provide the Company with certain office facilities and services. The Related Parties allocate a pro-rata portion of such facilities and services provided on behalf of the Company. Amounts allocated to the Company under the Agreement during 2017 totaled $94,700, of which $64,100 is included in occupancy and equipment costs, $5,175 is included in professional fees and contract services, $6,075 is included in communications and $19,350 is included in other expenses in the accompanying statement of income. Amounts allocated to the Company under the Agreement are currently $9,300 per month. The Agreement was not consummated on terms equivalent to arms-length transactions.

The Company has an advance due from a related party totaling $9,934 at September 30, 2017. The advance is non-interest bearing and due on demand.

The Company has an advance due to the sole shareholder totaling $27,500 at September 30, 2017. The advance is non-interest bearing and due on demand.

Note 6 - Off-Balance-Sheet Risk

As discussed in Note 1, the Company's customers' securities transactions are introduced on a fully disclosed basis with its clearing broker/dealer. The clearing broker/dealer carries accounts of the customers of the Company and is responsible for execution, collection and payment of funds, and receipt and delivery of securities relative to customer transactions. Off-balance-sheet risk exists with respect to these transactions due to the possibility that customers may be unable to fulfill their contractual commitments wherein the clearing broker/dealer may charge any losses it incurs to the Company. The Company seeks to minimize this risk through procedures designed to monitor the credit worthiness of its customers and that customer transactions are executed properly by the clearing broker/dealer.

Note 7 - Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company has $175,211 or approximately 81% of its total assets in commissions receivable and clearing deposit due from or held at the Company's clearing broker/dealer.

The Company has $114,395 or approximately 53% of its total assets invested in two debt securities issued by Texas municipalities, which are held by the clearing broker/dealer as a part of the Company's required clearing deposit.

Note 8 - Contingencies

There are currently no asserted claims or legal proceedings against the Company, however, the nature of the Company's business subjects it to various claims, regulatory examinations, and other proceedings in the ordinary course of business. The ultimate outcome of any such action against the Company could have an adverse impact on the financial condition, results of operations, or cash flows of the Company.

Note 9 - Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated the Company's events and transactions that occurred subsequent to September 30, 2017, through November 16, 2017, the date which the financial statements were available to be issued.
