1. Organization and Nature of Business

Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP (the "Company"), formerly known as Vega Securities LP and Proxima Alfa Securities LP, was organized in 2005 as a limited partnership under the laws of the State of Delaware. The Company provides finder or introducer services to private investment funds (i.e., hedge funds) and their managers. The Company is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA). The Company also is an introducing broker registered with the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) and is a member of the National Futures Association (NFA) and the Municipal Securities Rulemaking Board (MSRB). The Company operates from its office located in New York City.

The Company does not carry securities accounts for customers, perform custodial functions related to customers' securities, or maintain customer funds and is therefore exempt from the reserve and possession of control requirements of Rule 15c3-3 of the SEC.

The General Partner, which has a 0.33% ownership interest, has full and complete control of all affairs of the Company, and the management and control of the Company's activities. Limited partners are only liable for the losses, debts, and obligations of the Company. Allocation of income, losses, and distributions are made in accordance with each partner's respective ownership interest.

Subject to any limitations in the Delaware limited partnership law, a limited partner may not withdraw any part of its capital account from the Company or receive any distribution from the Company except as approved by the General Partner.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of accounting - The financial statements are prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Revenues and gains are recognized when earned, while expenses and losses are recognized when incurred.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Use of estimates - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition - The Company earns commissions for introducing new investors principally to private investment funds and investment managers. Commissions earned are computed based on the contractually agreed-upon portion of the fees charged by each manager to the investment funds.

Cash and cash equivalents - For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all cash on hand, cash accounts not subject to withdrawal restrictions or penalties, and all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

During the year ended December 31, 2014, the Company had amounts in excess of federally insured limits on deposit with a bank. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts, and management believes it is not subjected to any significant credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents.

Fair value of financial instruments - The carrying amounts of financial instruments, including cash, accounts receivable, and accounts payable, approximate fair market value due to the short-term maturities of these instruments.

Accounts receivable - Accounts receivable are customer accounts receivable carried at estimated net realizable value. Management believes that all accounts receivable as of December 31, 2015 are fully collectible. Accordingly, no reserve for bad debts has been recorded at December 31, 2015

Property, equipment and depreciation - Property and equipment are stated at cost. Additions to property and equipment or expenditures which increase the useful lives of the assets are capitalized. The cost of assets sold or otherwise disposed of and the accumulated depreciation thereon are eliminated from the accounts and the resulting gain or loss is reflected in income except for assets traded. Depreciation is provided on the straight-line basis at rates based on the following estimated useful lives:

Equipment	3-5 years

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Furniture and Fixtures	7 years

Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged to operations as incurred.

Income taxes - The Company is taxed as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. The Company is not a taxpaying entity for federal and state income tax purposes; accordingly, a provision for federal and state income taxes has not been recorded in the accompanying financial statements. Partnership income or loss is reflected in the partners' individual or corporate income tax returns in accordance with their ownership percentages.

The Company operates in New York City, which imposes an income tax on unincorporated businesses. A provision for unincorporated business tax expense has been recorded in the financial statements.

The Company files its U.S. partnership income tax returns using the cash basis of accounting. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be realized or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in earnings in the period that includes the enactment date.

The deferred tax asset is comprised of net operating loss carryforwards on tax imposed by the city of New York on limited partnerships.

The Company has adopted the provisions of FASB Accounting Standards Codification 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. Under FASB ASC 740-10, the Company is required to evaluate each of its tax positions to determine if they are more likely than not to be sustained if the taxing authority examines the respective position. A tax position includes an entity's status and the decision not to file a return. The Company has evaluated each of its tax positions and has determined that it has no uncertain tax positions for which a provision or liability for income taxes is necessary. The Company files income tax returns for federal, state and city jurisdictions. With few exceptions the Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state or local tax examinations by taxing authorities for years before 2012. The years 2012 to 2015 remain subject to examination by taxing authorities.

Subsequent events - The Company evaluated subsequent events from February 5, 2016, the date the financial statements were issued. There were no additional events or transactions occurring during this subsequent event reporting period which require recognition or disclosure in the financial statements.

3. Net Capital Requirements

The Company is subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Uniform Net Capital Rule (SEC rule 15c3-1), the Commodity Futures Trading Commission's (CFTC's) minimum financial requirements (Regulation 1.17), and the National Futures Association (NFA) Rule 7001, which require the maintenance of minimum net capital of $45,000 and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. These rules provide that equity capital may not be withdrawn if, among other things, the resulting net capital ratio would exceed 10 to 1. At December 31, 2015, the Company had net capital of $606,845, which was $561,845 in excess of its required net capital. The Company's percentage of aggregate indebtedness to net capital was 7.85%.

4. Transactions with Related Parties and Concentrations

For the year ended December 31, 2015 the company earned $1,435,285 (77% of total revenue) in commissions from Forum Asset Management, LLC ("Forum"), a limited partner.

The Company leases its office space under a space-sharing agreement with Forum. The agreement requires monthly lease payments and provides that the lease shall continue until terminated by either party at any time upon thirty days written notice to the other party. Net lease expense charged to operations for the year ended December 31, 2015 was $76,337.

At December 31, 2015, the Company had an accounts receivable of $74,361 with Forum.

5. Indemnifications

In the normal course of its business, the Company indemnifies and guarantees certain service providers against specified potential losses in connection with their acting as an agent of, or providing services to, the Company. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

The Company provides representations and warranties to counterparties in connection with a variety of commercial transactions and occasionally indemnifies them against potential losses caused by the breach of those representations and warranties. The Company may also provide standard indemnifications to some counterparties to protect them in the event additional taxes are owed or payments are withheld, due either to a change in or adverse application of certain tax laws. These indemnifications generally are standard contractual terms and are entered into in the normal course of business. The maximum potential amount of future payments that the Company could be required to make under these indemnifications cannot be estimated. However, the Company believes that it is unlikely it will have to make material payments under these arrangements and has not recorded any contingent liability in the financial statements for these indemnifications.

These financial statements are the responsibility of Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP as of December 31, 2015, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT ON INTERNAL CONTROL

To the Partners of
Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements and supplementary schedule of Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP (the "Company"), as of and for the year ended December 31, 2015, in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States), we considered the Company's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control.

As required by Regulation 1.16 of the Commodity Futures Trading Commission ("CFTC"), we have made a study of the practices and procedures followed by the Company including consideration of control activities for safeguarding customer and firm assets. This study included tests of compliance with such practices and procedures that we considered relevant to the objectives stated in Regulation 1.16 in making the periodic computations of minimum financial requirements pursuant to Regulation 1.17. Because the Company does not carry accounts for customers or perform custodial functions relating to customer securities, we did not review the practices and procedures followed by the Company in any of the following:

1. The daily computations of the segregation requirements of section 4d(a)(2) of the Commodity Exchange Act and the regulations there under, and the segregation of funds based on such computations.

2. The daily computations of the foreign futures and foreign options secured amount requirements pursuant to Regulation 30.7 of the CFTC.

The management of the Company is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal control and the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs. In fulfilling this responsibility, estimates and judgments by management are required to assess the expected benefits and related costs of controls and of the practices and procedures referred to in the preceding paragraphs, and to assess whether those practices and procedures can be expected to achieve the CFTC's above-mentioned objectives. Two of the objectives of internal control and the practices and procedures are to provide management with reasonable but not absolute assurance that assets for which the Company has responsibility are safeguarded against loss from unauthorized use or disposition, and that transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and recorded properly to permit preparation of financial statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Regulation 1.16(d)(2) lists additional objectives of the practices and procedures listed in the preceding paragraphs.

Because of inherent limitations in any internal control or the practices and procedures referred to above, errors or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projection of any evaluation of them to future periods is subject to the risk that they may become inadequate because of changes in conditions or the effectiveness of their design and operation may deteriorate.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct, misstatements on a timely basis. A significant deficiency is a deficiency, or a combination of deficiencies, in internal control that is less severe than a material weakness, yet important enough to merit attention by those charged with governance.

A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the company's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected, on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first and second paragraphs and would not necessarily identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. We did not identify any deficiencies in internal control and control activities for safeguarding securities that we consider to be material weaknesses, as defined previously.

We understand that practices and procedures that accomplish the objectives referred to in the second paragraph of this report are considered by the CFTC to be adequate for its purposes in accordance with the Commodity Exchange Act and related regulations, and that practices and procedures that do not accomplish such objectives in all material respects indicate a material inadequacy for such purposes. Based on this understanding and on our study, we believe that the Company's practices and procedures, as described in the second paragraphs of this report, were adequate at December 31, 2015, to meet the CFTC's objectives.

This report is intended solely for the information and use of the Member, management, the CFTC, and other regulatory agencies that rely on Rule 1.16 of the CFTC, and is not intended to be and should not be used by anyone other than these specified parties.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

To the Partners of
Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP

We have reviewed management's statements, included in Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP's Exemption Report, in which (1) Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP identified the following provisions of 17 C.F.R. §15c3-3(k) under which Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP claimed an exemption from 17 C.F.R. §240.15c3-3: k(2)(i) (the "exemption provisions") and (2) Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP stated that Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP met the identified exemption provisions throughout the most recent fiscal year without exception. Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP's management is responsible for compliance with the exemption provisions and its statements.

Our review was conducted in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and, accordingly, included inquiries and other required procedures to obtain evidence about Mann Mann Jensen Partners LP's compliance with the exemption provisions. A review is substantially less in scope than an examination, the objective of which is the expression of an opinion on management's statements. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

Based on our review, we are not aware of any material modifications that should be made to management's statements referred to above for them to be fairly stated, in all material respects, based on the provisions set forth in paragraph (k)(2)(i) of Rule 15c3-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.
