NEXUS DATA SECURITY CORP.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (OIP) on August 10, 2016, alleging that each Respondent has a class of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and is delinquent in its periodic filings. Respondents were served with the OIP by August 15 and their answers were due by August 29, 2016. Dominion Minerals Corp., Admin. Proc. Rulings Release No. 4083, 2016 SEC LEXIS 2924 (ALJ Aug. 23, 2016). I scheduled a telephonic prehearing conference for September 1, 2016, and notified Respondents that if they failed to file answers, participate in the prehearing conference, or otherwise defend the proceeding, I would deem them in default, determine that the allegations in the OIP were true, and revoke the registrations of Respondents' securities. Id.

On August 29, 2016, the Commission issued an order making findings and revoking the registration of the registered securities of Dominion Minerals Corp. Dominion Minerals Corp., Exchange Act Release No. 78709, 2016 SEC LEXIS 3234. Foxwedge, Inc., Harrington Resources, Inc., Juniper Acquisition Corporation, and Nexus Data Security Corp. have not filed answers and did not participate in the September 1 prehearing conference. At the prehearing conference, the Division of Enforcement stated that none of these remaining respondents had contacted the Division.

I ORDER the remaining respondents to show cause by September 19, 2016, why the registrations of their securities should not be revoked by default due to their failures to file timely answers, appear at the prehearing conference, or otherwise defend this proceeding. OIP at 3; 17 C.F.R. §§ 201.155(a), .220(f), .221(f).
