Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

I am an investor.

I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance.

I want to know ---ESPECIALLY WHAT THE CEOS OF HEALTH INSURANCE COMPANIES, LIKE UNITED HEALTH CARE -- are getting (I almost wrote "earning").

Americans are squashed like bugs under the heels of corporate executives.

Why the resistance if there is nothing to hide?

thank you, Jeri Harris, Washington State

Sincerely,

Jeri Harris
