Re: Pay Ratio Disclosure, File No. S7-07-13

Dear Ms. Murphy,

PAY SCALES ARE RIGGED TO DISPROPORTIONATELY AND UNFAIRLY BENEFIT UPPER MANAGEMENT OF MOST COMPANIES AT THE EXPENSE OF THE WORKERS WHO ARE ACTUALLY THE ONES MOST RESPONSIBLE FOR PRODUCING COMPANY SERVICES AND PRODUCTS. THIS IS UNCONSCIENCABLE, IMMORAL AND A DISGRACE AND IT HAS PROCEEDED TO A UNPARALLELED SCALE WHERE THE WORKING CLASS OF MANY COMPANIES HAVE TO RELY ON PUBLIC ASSISTANCE TO SURVIVE WHEN IT IS OBVIOUS THEY SHOULD AND COULD BE GETTING SUFFICIENTLY PAID BY THEIR COMPANY. THIS RESULTS IN AN UNCONSCIENCABLE, IMMORAL TRANSFER OF INCOME FROM THOSE WHO EARNED IT AND FROM TAX PAYERS TO THOSE WHO DO NOT DESERVE NOR NEED IT!!!!

THUS I strongly support regulations that would require publicly-traded companies to disclose CEO-to-median worker pay ratios. As income inequality reaches unprecedented heights, the public has the right to know which corporations are fueling the yawning gap between rich and poor.

Disclosure of CEO-to-worker pay ratios are also crucial for investors. This information is important for determining whether corporations are diverting resources to executives at the expense of long-term investments and workforce development. Additionally, investors need to be able to gauge whether executives' compensation is falling in line with their performance.

Sincerely,

Robert Scholl
