

Your Relationship with Your Financial Professional: Feedback on the Relationship Summary

We would like to know what you think about a proposed Relationship Summary that describes your relationship with your investment adviser or your broker-dealer (your firm) and your financial professionals. This document summarizes:

- the services the firm offers and the types of fees and costs associated with those services;
- the firm's obligations to you;
- certain conflicts of interest;
- how to find additional information about the firm and its financial professionals and research disciplinary history for the firm or its financial professionals;
- how to report a problem with your investments, investment account or a financial professional; and
- some questions to ask your financial professional to get more information.

It is important to us at the SEC to understand what you, the investor, think so that we can make it easier for you to choose the type of investment services relationship that is right for you. We prepared sample Relationship Summaries to illustrate what they may look like.

- Sample Relationship Summary for a broker-dealer
- Sample Relationship Summary for an investment adviser
- Sample Relationship Summary for firms that are both an investment adviser and broker-dealer

Please take a few minutes to review one or more of the samples and answer any or all of these questions. Please provide your comments by August 7, 2018 and thank you for your feedback!

If you are interested in background information on the proposed Relationship Summary, or want to provide feedback on additional questions, click here.

4. Are there topics in the Relationship Summary that are too technical or that could be improved?

No

5. Is there additional information that we should require in the Relationship Summary, such as more specific information about the firm or additional information about fees? Is that because you do not receive the information now, or because you would also like to see it presented in this summary document, or both? Is there any information that should be made more prominent?

Don't know, probably OK

6. Is the Relationship Summary an appropriate length? If not, should it be longer or shorter?

yes, ~~about right~~ a bit long.

7. Do you find the 'Key Questions to Ask' useful? Would the questions improve the quality of your discussion with your financial professional? If not, why not?

yes, Its good to start the conversation

8. Do you have any additional suggestions to improve the Relationship Summary? Is there anything else you would like to tell us?

yes, put key questions and Add. info up front to stimulate a conversation.

- make the obligation ^{SEC} "fiduciary standard" under investment advisor more clear, spell out Requirement - Best interest etc.
