

MEMORANDUM

To: File No. S7-24-19

From: Elliot Staffin, Special Counsel

Re: Telephone Conference with Chamber of Commerce

Date: July 1, 2020

Attendees:

SEC:

Sebastian Gomez (Senior Advisor to Chairman Clayton)
Amy Reischauer (Senior Advisor to Chairman Clayton)
Betsy Murphy (Associate Director, Division of Corporation Finance)
Barry Summer (Associate Director, Division of Corporation Finance)
Elliot Staffin (Special Counsel, Division of Corporation Finance)

Outside Attendees:

U.S. Chamber of Commerce:

Tom Quaadman, Executive Vice-President
Brian O'Shea, Policy Consultant

Chevron:

Chris Cavallo, Assistant Secretary and Managing Counsel
Pirela Elisha, Finance Supervisor
Jay Thompson, Manager, International Government Affairs

ConocoPhillips:

Shannon Kinney, Deputy General Counsel & Chief Compliance Officer
Konnies Haynes-Welsh, Assistant Controller
John Dabbar, Vice President, Federal & State Government Affairs

ExxonMobil

Matt Gobush, Public & Government Affairs

On July 1, 2020, the above-listed persons participated in a telephone conference at which they discussed, among other things, the SEC's proposed rules on the disclosure of payments by resource extraction issuers.

