

I am very much opposed to the creation/proposal of NAC to take control of our country's land/resources. This proposal would prevent me from enjoying the national parks, without government approval. The thought that this proposal would even be considered is frightening. What is happening to our country?