

I never thought in a million years that we would sell off our land and water, gas, mineral rights, etc., to foreign countries. These countries would control our daily lives. Without our water and land we die.

I beg of you not to do this..... Please do not allow this. This is destroying the United States without firing a shot.

Becky Sophusson