

DIVISION OF INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT STAFF STATEMENT REGARDING NEW RESOURCE FOR MODIFIED OR WITHDRAWN STAFF STATEMENTS

The staff of the Division of Investment Management is making available a list of no-action letters and other staff statements that have been modified or withdrawn. This list, titled “Modified or Withdrawn Staff Statements,” is now available on the Commission’s website.¹

The staff expects to update this web page periodically, but may not issue separate informational updates or announcements for each update. Therefore, you may wish to subscribe to the email bulletins that will notify subscribers of updates to this web page.²

The list on the Modified or Withdrawn Staff Statements web page is not exhaustive. Both this list and the referenced staff documents represent the views of staff of the Division of Investment Management and are not a rule, regulation, or statement of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Furthermore, the Commission has neither approved nor disapproved the content of this list or the referenced staff documents. Like all staff guidance, neither the list nor any referenced staff document has any legal force or effect: they do not alter or amend applicable law, and they create no new or additional obligations for any person.

IM Information Updates are recurring notices regarding the activities of the Division. The Division generally issues IM Information Updates to alert the public—including investors and industry participants—to key developments, such as updates to Frequently Asked Questions, technical improvements to SEC forms, and certain other staff actions. IM Information Updates may also explain administrative and procedural matters, such as how to most effectively communicate with the staff.
