CONSENT OF DEFENDANT DARIN DEMIZIO

1. Defendant Darin DeMizio (“DeMizio”), being fully apprised of his rights, having had the opportunity to confer with legal counsel, having read and understood the terms of the annexed Final Consent Judgment Of Permanent Injunction And Other Relief As To Defendant Darin DeMizio (“Final Judgment”), appears and admits to the jurisdiction of this Court over him and over the subject matter of this action, waive the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, without further notice, trial or argument, and without admitting or denying the allegations of the Complaint filed by plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”), except as to jurisdiction, which are admitted, hereby consents to the entry of the annexed Final Judgment.

2. Defendant DeMizio agrees that this Consent Of Defendant DeMizio (“Consent”) shall be incorporated by reference in and made part of the Final Judgment to be presented to the Court for signature, filing and entry contemporaneously herewith.

3. Defendant DeMizio waives the right, if any, to a jury trial and to appeal from the Final Judgment.

4. Defendant DeMizio acknowledges that any violation of any of the terms of the Final Judgment may place him in contempt of this Court and subject him to civil or criminal sanctions.

5. Defendant DeMizio acknowledges that he enters into this Consent voluntarily, and that, other than the acceptance of DeMizio’s offer to consent to the entry of an administrative order pursuant to Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, this Consent and the Final Judgment embody the entire understanding of himself and the Commission. Defendant

DeMizio acknowledges and agrees that this proceeding and his Consent to the entry of the Final Judgment are for the purposes of resolving this civil action only, and that no tender, offer, promise, threat or representation of any kind has been made by the Commission or any member, officer, attorney, agent or representative thereof with regard to: (a) any criminal liability arising from the facts underlying this action; or (b) immunity from any such criminal liability.

6. Defendant DeMizio acknowledges that he has been informed and understands that the Commission, at its sole and exclusive discretion, may refer, or grant access to, this matter or any information or evidence gathered in connection therewith or derived therefrom, to any person or entity having appropriate administrative, civil, or criminal jurisdiction, if the Commission has not already done so.

7. Defendant DeMizio acknowledges that, in conformity with the provisions of 17 C.F.C. § 202.5(f), his Consent and the entry of the annexed Final Judgment do not resolve, affect or preclude any other proceeding that has been or may be brought against him or anyone else. Among other things, defendant DeMizio waives any right he may have to assert that, under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution, the relief sought or consented to in this civil action, including the seeking or imposition of any remedy or civil penalty herein, bars any criminal action, or that any criminal action bars the relief consented to in this action.

8. Defendant DeMizio acknowledges that the Court's entry of a permanent injunction may have collateral consequences under federal or state law and the rules and regulations of self-regulatory organizations, licensing boards, and other regulatory organizations. Such collateral consequences include, but are not limited to, a statutory disqualification with respect to membership or participation in, or association with a member of, a self-regulatory organization. This statutory disqualification has consequences that are separate from any sanction imposed in an administrative proceeding.

9. Defendant DeMizio understands and agrees to comply with the Commission's policy "not to permit a defendant or respondent to consent to a judgment or order that imposes a sanction while denying the allegation in the Complaint or order for proceedings," 17 C.F.C. § 202.5(e). In compliance with this policy, defendant DeMizio agrees: (i) not to take any action or to make or permit to be made any public statement denying, directly or indirectly, any allegation in the Complaint or creating the impression that the Complaint is without factual basis; and (ii) that upon the filing of this Consent, defendant DeMizio hereby withdraws any papers filed in this action to the extent that they deny any allegation in the Complaint. If defendant DeMizio breaches this agreement, the Commission may petition the Court to vacate the Final Judgment and restore this action to its active docket. Nothing in this provision affects defendant DeMizio's: (a) testimonial obligations; or (b) right to take legal or factual positions in defense of litigation or other legal proceedings in which the Commission is not a party.

10. Defendant DeMizio agrees that this Court shall retain jurisdiction of this matter for purposes of implementing and enforcing the terms and conditions of the Final Judgment and for all other purposes.

11. Defendant DeMizio hereby consents and agrees that the annexed Final Judgment may be presented by the Commission to the Court for signature and entry without further notice or delay.

12. Defendant DeMizio will not oppose the enforcement of the Final Judgment on the ground, if any exists, that it fails to comply with Rule 65(d) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and hereby waive any objection based thereon.

13. Defendant DeMizio waives service of the Final Judgment and agrees that entry of the Final Judgment by the Court and filing with the Clerk of the Court will constitute notice to him of its terms and conditions. Defendant DeMizio agrees to execute and provide to the Commission a written declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 acknowledging his receipt of the Final Judgment no later than twenty (20) days after a copy of the Final Judgment has been delivered to his counsel David Spears, Esq., Spears & Imes LLP, 51 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10010.

14. Defendant DeMizio hereby waives any rights under the Equal Access to Justice Act, the Small Business Regulatory Enforcement Fairness Act of 1996, or any other provision of law to seek from the United States, or any agency, or any official of the United States acting in his or her official capacity, directly or indirectly, reimbursement of attorney's fees or other fees, expenses, or costs expended by defendant DeMizio to defend against this action. For these purposes, defendant DeMizio agrees that he is not the prevailing party in this action since the parties have reached a good faith settlement.
