V.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the determination not to impose a civil penalty and to waive payment of the disgorgement amount and prejudgment interest thereon is expressly contingent upon the accuracy and completeness of Thomas's Sworn Statement of Financial Condition dated ~~January 13~~ May 15, 2002, submitted to the Commission and that, if at any time following the entry of this Final Judgment, the Commission obtains information indicating that Thomas's representations to the Commission concerning his assets, income, liabilities and/or net worth were fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made, the Commission may, at its sole discretion and without prior notice to Thomas, petition this Court for an order requiring Thomas to pay disgorgement, prejudgment and post-judgment interest thereon, less the amount and value of all disgorgement previously made by Thomas, and a civil penalty. In connection with any such petition, the only issues shall be whether the financial information provided by Thomas was fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made and the amount of civil penalty to be imposed. In its petition, the Commission may move this Court to consider all available remedies, including, but not limited to, ordering Thomas to turn over funds and assets, directing the forfeiture of any assets and imposing sanctions for contempt of this Final Judgment, and the Commission may also request additional discovery. Thomas may not, by way of defense to such petition, challenge the validity of its Consent or this Final Judgment, contest the allegations in the Complaint filed by the Commission or the amount of disgorgement and interest or assert that disgorgement or payment of a civil penalty should not be ordered.
