close of each calendar month thereafter, if there has been a change in such ownership during such month, failing to file with the Commission (and if such security is registered in a national securities exchange, also with the exchange) a statement indicating his ownership at the close of the calendar month and such changes in his ownership as have occurred during such calendar month.

VIII.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that defendant Craig be permanently barred from acting as a director or officer of any issuer having a class of securities registered with the Commission pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78l] or that is required to file reports pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78o(d)].

IX.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Craig pay disgorgement in the amount of $149,200.00, representing his gains from the conduct alleged in the Complaint, plus pre-judgment interest thereon in the amount of $59,999.84. Based upon Craig's sworn representations in his Statement of Financial Condition dated January 1, 1998, as supplemented by his affidavit dated November 5, 1998 ("Statement of Financial Condition"), and submitted to the Commission, payment of the disgorgement and pre-judgment interest thereon is waived. This waiver is contingent upon the accuracy and completeness of his Statement of Financial Condition. If at any time following the entry of this Final Judgment the Commission obtains information indicating that Craig's representations to the Commission concerning his assets, income, liabilities, or net worth were fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made, the Commission may, at its sole discretion and without prior notice to Craig's, petition this Court for an order requiring Craig to pay disgorgement and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest thereon. In connection with any such petition, the only issue shall be whether the financial information provided by Craig was fraudulent, misleading, inaccurate or incomplete in any material respect as of the time such representations were made. In its petition, the Commission may move this Court to consider all available remedies, including, but not limited to, ordering Craig to pay funds or assets, directing the forfeiture of any assets, or sanctions for contempt of this Final Judgment, and the Commission may also request additional discovery. Craig may not, by way of defense to such petition, challenge the validity of his Consent or the Final Judgment, contest the allegations in the Complaint filed by the Commission, contest the amount of disgorgement and interest, or assert that disgorgement should not be ordered.

X.

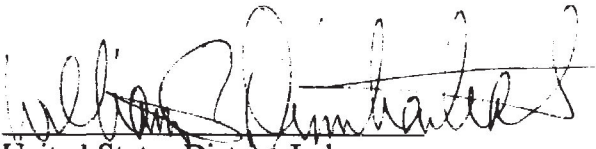

It is further ORDERED that the provisions of the Consent filed concurrently with this Final Judgment are incorporated herein with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein and that Craig shall comply with his Consent.

XI.

It is further ORDERED that the Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action for all purposes, including implementation and enforcement of this Final Judgment.

There being no just reason for delay, the Clerk of the Court is hereby directed, pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to enter this Final Judgment forthwith.

SO ORDERED, this 11 day of February, 1999.
