File No. 3-15389

In the Matter of Duoyuan Printing, Inc.

Respondent.

DECLARATION OF JUNLING MA IN SUPPORT
OF MOTION TO SERVE RESPONDENT BY ALTERNATIVE MEANS PURSUANT TO RULE OF PRACTICE 141(a)(2)(iv)

I, Junling Ma, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice law by the State Bar of California and by this Court. I am a Senior Counsel with Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) in the Division of Enforcement. I am one of the attorneys assigned to this matter, and I have personal knowledge of each of the matters set forth below or knowledge based upon information and belief, and, if called as a witness, I could and would competently testify to the facts stated herein.

2. This Administrative Proceeding was commenced on July 26, 2013. The Order Instituting Administrative Proceedings Pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Notice of Hearing (“OIP”) alleges that Duoyuan failed to comply with Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder because it is delinquent in its periodic filings with the Commission for over two years, having failed to file Forms 10-K for the years ended June 30, 2010, 2011 and 2012 and Forms 10-Q for quarters ended September 30, 2010,

December 31, 2010, March 31, 2011, September 30, 2011, December 31, 2011, March 31, 2012, September 30, 2012, December 31, 2012, and March 31, 2013. In addition, the Commission ordered a suspension of trading in the securities of Duoyuan for the period commencing at 9:30 a.m. EDT on July 26, 2013 and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT August 8, 2013.

3. Following institution of this proceeding, I attempted to serve Duoyuan, a China-based issuer, through its outside counsel, Henry Schlueter, Esq., of Schlueter & Associates, P.C., located at 1050 Seventeenth Street, Suite 1750, Denver, Colorado 80265 (OIP delivered on July 29, 2013). I was advised by Mr. Schlueter that while he represented Duoyuan, he was not authorized to accept the service on behalf of the company.

4. I then attempted to locate a registered agent for service of process. Duoyuan had no registered agent for service of process in the United States. Because Duoyuan had no registered agent, the only address for service of process is its last address on file with the Commission, found in its last Form 8-K filed on April 16, 2012. The listed address is No. 3 Jinyuan Road, Daxing Industrial Development Zone, Beijing, People's Republic of China 102600.

5. In early August 2013, I began attempts to serve Duoyuan with the OIP in China via the provisions of the Hague Convention. After having the documents translated into Chinese, I directed the paralegal assigned to this matter to send them to the Commission's Office of International Affairs, who then forwarded copies of the OIP in English and Chinese to China's designated central authority for service, the Ministry of Justice, along with forms that list the name and addresses of the persons to be served, as well as the basis for requesting Hague Convention service. I received a confirmation that the service package was received by the Ministry of Justice on August 25, 2013.

6. On September 5, 2013, my colleague Rhoda Chang received correspondence from the Chinese Ministry of Justice requesting that additional documents be translated and forwarded for inclusion in the Hague Convention service package on Duoyuan. She forwarded the documents to my colleague Lynn Dean and on October 3, 2013, after the requested documents had been translated into Chinese, Ms. Dean directed the paralegal assigned to this matter to forward the requested documents to the Commission's Office of International Affairs, who then forwarded them to China's Ministry of Justice. Neither I nor my colleagues have received any further correspondence from the Chinese Ministry of Justice regarding the attempt to serve Duoyuan through the Hague Convention provisions.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed this 22nd day of May 2014, in Los Angeles, California.
