SEAN FINN'S RESPONSE TO SEC'S
DIVISION OF ENFORCEMENT'S
MOTION FOR SUMMARY
DISPOSITION AND IMPOSITION OF SANCTIONS

17 CERTIFICATION: This Response is being filed timely

18 Sean Finn Pro Se, hereby responds to the SEC's Division of Enforcement's, Motion for 19 Summary Disposition and Imposition of Sanctions, filed on March 8, 2019.

20 On April 1, 2019, Finn sent this division a letter in response to the above Motion, informing the 21 Division that, Finn has filed a Motion with the district court of Nevada, to dismiss the case-in-chief, No.
22 2:13-cv-02280, SEC v. Finn.

23 The Division replied to Finn's letter, with another letter, claiming that Finn needs to follow the 24 rules of the administrative proceedings described in 17 C.F.R. § 201, and numerous other rules, that could 25 be found at a specific website. Not one CFR is contained, in the diluted version of "Lexis Nexis" that is 26 available to Finn, nor does Finn have access to a computer, which allows internet research. Accordingly,
27 Finn files this motion to the best of his ability, considering the circumstances of Finn being incarcerated
28 and Pro Se, whereby he is now defending himself in 3 separate courts, for the same alleged crimes.

Therefore, Finn hereby files this in response to the Division of Enforcement's Motion for Summary Disposition and Imposition of Sanctions, whereby Finn is requesting this Court to Stay all
Administrative Proceedings, until the determination of Finn's Motion to dismiss the case-in-chief 2:13-

1 cv-02280, SEC v. Finn. with the District Court, filed on March 29, 2019, via “mail system” First Class
2 Mail from the Nevada Southern Detention Center.

3 The described dismissal, was timely, and clearly proves that, the “Final Default Judgment” was 4 fallaciously obtained by the Securities and Exchange Commission (Stephen Simpson), and upon the 5 District Court dismissing the case-in-chief, consequently, the Division of Enforcement’s actions will 6 become moot. In the unlikely event that, the District Court does not dismiss this case, Finn will 7 immediately appeal to the 9th Circuit Court of Appeals.

8 In the event this Stay is not granted, Finn hereby objects to the unfounded summations, and 9 assemblage of evidence, contained in the “Motion of Summary Disposition” in its entirety,

10 CONCLUSION

11 For the above stated reason's, these “Administrative Proceedings” should be stayed until the final 12 outcome of the case-in-chief.
