

family have been irreparably harmed by FINRA and I am desperately waiting to go to Federal Court and have a judge rule on my appeal. Of course, I cannot do that until the SEC is finished with its decision in the case. I know Ms. Countryman you are extremely busy with more important matters, but I am pleading with you to please investigate my case and see if you can push this matter forward. I, as I have mentioned, am not an attorney. I have fought this case by myself for the last 6 years to get back my reputation and fix a terrible wrong that has happened to me. I was informed that there is another option for me to possibly speed this process up. It is called filing a petition of mandamus through the Federal District Court. I do not want to do that but if I continue to get no response from all my pleas I will be left with no other choice. I am not expected to live another 10 months. Please help me. If a final decision cannot happen in the next 60 days, can I at least get a status report as to what is going on and what issues the SEC is struggling with. That would certainly be helpful. I will send a copy of this letter through the eFAP system as well in case you never receive this letter. Naturally, I certify to you that I will send a copy of this letter to Mr. Michael Smith, the attorney for FINRA in this case.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,
