COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

Civil Action No. 0810752-(PAC)

CRISTIAN DE COLLI

Defendant.

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER FREEZING ASSETS AND GRANTING OTHER RELIEF AND ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE WHY THE ASSET FREEZE SHOULD NOT CONTINUE

On the application of Plaintiff Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission") for an ex parte Order: (1) freezing assets; (2) preventing document alteration or destruction; (3) expediting discovery in this action; (4) providing for alternative service; and (5) requiring Defendant Cristian De Colli to show cause why the Court should not issue a Preliminary Injunction and impose other relief against him:

The Court, having considered the Complaint in this action; the Declaration of Laurita Finch, with supporting exhibits; and the Memorandum of Points and Authorities in support of the Motion for Temporary Restraining Order, makes the following findings:

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action and over defendant Cristian De Colli.
2. The Commission has made a sufficient and proper showing in support of the relief granted herein, as required by Section 21(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. § 78u(d)) by evidence establishing a prima facie case and a strong likelihood that the Commission will prevail at trial on the merits and that the defendant, directly or indirectly, has engaged in and, unless restrained and enjoined by order of this Court, will continue to engage in acts, practices, and courses of business constituting violations of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (15 U.S.C. § 78j(b)), and Rule 10b-5 (17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5).

3. There is good cause to believe that, unless restrained and enjoined by order of this Court, Defendant Cristian De Colli will dissipate, conceal, or transfer from the jurisdiction of this Court assets which could be subject to an order directing disgorgement or the payment of civil money penalties in this action. It is appropriate for the Court to issue this Temporary Restraining Order ex parte so that prompt service on appropriate financial institutions can be made, thus preventing the dissipation of assets.

4. There is good cause to believe that, unless restrained and enjoined by order of this Court, defendant may alter or destroy documents relevant to this action.

Now, therefore,

I.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that pending the determination of the Commission's Motion for a Preliminary Injunction or hearing on the merits:

A. Defendant Cristian De Colli and his agents, servants, employees, attorneys-in-fact, and those persons in active concert or participation with him who receive actual notice of this Order by personal service or otherwise, and each of them, hold and retain within their control, and otherwise prevent any disposition, transfer, pledge, encumbrance, assignment, dissipation, concealment, or other disposal whatsoever of any of their funds or other assets or things of value in the United States presently held by them, under their control or over which they exercise actual or apparent investment or other authority, in whatever form such assets may presently exist;

B. That any financial or brokerage institution or other person or entity located within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States courts and holding any funds or other assets in the name of, for the benefit of, or under the control of Defendant Cristian De Colli, his agents, servants, employees, attorneys-in-fact, and those persons in active concert or participation with them, and each of them, including an account at E-Trade Securities, LLC, account number 70611161, shall hold and retain within their control and prohibit the withdrawal, removal, transfer or other disposal of any such funds or other assets except as otherwise ordered by this Court. Necessary and reasonable living expenses will be granted to Defendant upon good cause shown by application to the Court with notice to and an opportunity for the Commission to be heard;

II.

As used in this order, "document" means the original and all non-identical copies (whether non-identical because of handwritten notation or otherwise) of all written or graphic matter, however produced, and any other tangible record, or electronic data compilation capable of reproduction in tangible form, including, without limitation, correspondence, memoranda, minutes, telephone records, e-mails, reports, studies, telexes, diaries, calendar entries, contracts, letters of agreement, and including any and all existing drafts of all documents.

III.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Commission's application for expedited discovery concerning defendant, his assets and activities, is granted and that, commencing with the time and date of this Order, in lieu of the time periods, notice provisions, and other requirements of Rules 26, 30, 33, 34, 36 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 30.1A of the Local Rules of this Court, discovery shall proceed as follows:

A. Pursuant to Rule 30(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Commission may take depositions upon oral examination on two days notice of any such deposition. Discovery requests may be communicated by facsimile, mail, or overnight delivery.

Defendant De Colli shall serve any papers in opposition to such relief by hand delivery or overnight courier service to the Commission's counsel, A. determine will give Defendant De Colli or his attorneys prompt delivery of these papers.

VI.
