In the Matter of

APPTIGO INTERNATIONAL, INC.,
JD INTERNATIONAL LIMITED,
XLI TECHNOLOGIES INC.,
AND ZENTRIC, INC.

ORDER DISMISSING PROCEEDING AGAINST JD INTERNATIONAL LIMITED

On May 17, 2018, the Commission issued an order instituting an administrative proceeding (“OIP”) against JD International Limited under Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ The OIP alleged that JD International had violated periodic reporting requirements and sought to determine, based on those allegations, whether it was “necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend . . . or revoke” the registration of JD International’s securities.

On May 16, 2018, JD International filed with the Commission a Form 15 seeking to terminate voluntarily the registration of its securities under Section 12(g) of the Exchange Act.² Exchange Act Rule 12g-4(a)(1) permits the termination of registration if the issuer certifies that the class of securities being deregistered is held of record by fewer than 300 persons.³ In its Form 15, JD International certified that the approximate number of holders of record was 296 as

The OIP also instituted proceedings against Apptigo International, Inc., XLI Technologies Inc., and Zentric, Inc. An administrative law judge revoked the registration of the securities of these respondents, and the Commission declared that decision final. Apptigo Int’l, Inc., Initial Decision Release No. 1275, 2018 WL 5617602 (Oct. 30, 2018); Apptigo Int’l, Inc., Exchange Act Release No. 85217, 2019 WL 970107 (Feb. 27, 2019). This order does not apply to these other three respondents.

² 17 C.F.R. § 240.12g-4(a) (providing for certification of termination of registration under Exchange Act Section 12(g), 15 U.S.C. § 78l(g), by filing a Form 15).

of the May 16, 2018. Under Rule 12g-4(a), an issuer's registration is terminated 90 days after the issuer files a Form 15—in this case August 14, 2018.⁴

The Division of Enforcement made no filings with respect to the Form 15 between the time JD International filed the Form 15 and the time the Form 15 became effective. After JD International's Form 15 became effective, the Division moved to dismiss the proceeding against JD International. JD International has not responded to the Division's motion.

We have determined to grant the Division's motion. JD International no longer has a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act. Because revocation and suspension of registration are the only remedies available in a proceeding instituted under Exchange Act Section 12(j), we find it appropriate to dismiss this proceeding against JD International.⁵

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that this proceeding is dismissed with respect to JD International Limited.

By the Commission.
