SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 93536 / November 8, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-20510

In the Matter of

JADE GLOBAL HOLDINGS, INC. (F/K/A MEDIA ANALYTICS CORPORATION)

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on August 31, 2021, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against respondent Jade Global Holdings, Inc. (f/k/a Media Analytics Corporation) (“Respondent”).¹

On November 2, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed a Supplemental Declaration of Sandhya C. Harris, which established that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on September 4, 2021.³

² 17 C.F.R. § 201.141(a)(2)(ii).

³ The Supplemental Declaration stated that Respondent’s last filing with the Commission was “a Form NT-10-K filed with the Commission on June 29, 2020.” A search of the Commission’s EDGAR database, however, shows that, while the Supplemental Declaration correctly states the date of Respondent’s last filing with the Commission and Respondent’s address in the filing, that filing was a Form NT-10-Q, not a Form NT-10-K. We take official notice of Respondent’s Form NT-10-Q. See Rule of Practice 323, 17 C.F.R. §201.323 (permitting the Commission to take official notice of, for example, “any matter in the public official records of the Commission,” such as periodic reports filed in the EDGAR database).

As stated in the OIP, Respondent's answer was required to be filed within ten days of the service of the OIP.⁴ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and hearing are thus continued indefinitely as to Respondent.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by November 22, 2021, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁵ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is directed to the most recent amendments to the Commission's Rules of Practice, which took effect on April 12, 2021, and which include new e-filing requirements.⁶

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.

Vanessa A. Countryman
Secretary
