

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
(Release No. 34-53542; File No. SR-NASD-2006-029)

March 23, 2006

Self-Regulatory Organizations; National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.; Notice of Filing and Immediate Effectiveness of Proposed Rule Change Relating to Amendments to Rule 6530 to Clarify the Removal Process for Securities of OTCBB Issuers that Fail to Remain Current with OTCBB Reporting Requirements

Pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Act”)¹ and Rule 19b-4 thereunder,² notice is hereby given that on February 27, 2006, the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (“NASD”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) the proposed rule change as described in Items I, II, and III below, which Items have been prepared by NASD. NASD has designated the proposed rule change as “constituting a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule” under Section 19(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act³ and Rule 19b-4(f)(1) thereunder,⁴ which renders the proposal effective upon receipt of this filing by the Commission. The Commission is publishing this notice to solicit comments on the proposed rule change from interested persons.

I. Self-Regulatory Organization’s Statement of the Terms of Substance of the Proposed Rule Change

NASD is proposing to amend NASD Rule 6530 to clarify the removal process for the securities of issuers quoted on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board (“OTCBB”) that fail to remain current with reporting their financial information to the Commission or other appropriate regulator. The text of the proposed rule change is available on NASD’s Web site

II. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

In its filing with the Commission, NASD included statements concerning the purpose of and basis for the proposed rule change and discussed any comments it received on the proposed rule change. The text of these statements may be examined at the places specified in Item IV below. NASD has prepared summaries, set forth in Sections A, B, and C below, of the most significant aspects of such statements.

A. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement of the Purpose of, and Statutory Basis for, the Proposed Rule Change

1. Purpose

In January 1999, the Commission approved amendments to NASD Rules 6530 and 6540 that limit quotations on the OTCBB to securities of issuers that are current in their periodic filings with the Commission or other applicable regulator.⁵ In November 2005, the Commission approved amendments to NASD Rule 6530 that limit the eligibility for quotation on the OTCBB of the securities of issuers that are repeatedly late or otherwise delinquent in filing periodic reports.⁶ Specifically, NASD Rule 6530(e) provides that OTCBB issuers that fail to file a complete periodic report with the Commission or other respective regulator, even if they file within the grace period allowed by NASD Rule 6530, three times in a two-year period and those issuers that have been removed from the OTCBB for failure to file two times in a two-year period, are ineligible for quotation on the OTCBB by an NASD member.⁷ Following removal pursuant to NASD Rule 6530(e), the securities of an issuer would only become eligible for quotation on the OTCBB again if the issuer has timely filed complete required periodic reports for a one-year period.

NASD is filing the proposed rule change to clarify the removal process and grace periods for securities of OTCBB issuers that fail to remain current in their reporting requirements. Specifically, when an issuer does not comply with the reporting requirements in NASD Rule 6530, either because a filing was not made⁸ or because a filing was incomplete,⁹ a fifth character “E” is appended to the trading symbol of that issuer’s security.¹⁰ Notice of the pending symbol ⁷ NASD Rule 6530(e) applies to filings for reporting periods ending on and after October 1, 2005.

⁸ When NASD does not receive notice that an issuer which files with a regulator other than the Commission has timely filed, the “E” modifier is appended to the trading symbol of the issuer’s security. If the issuer did in fact timely file with its respective regulator, the issuer would not be considered delinquent for purposes of NASD Rule 6530(e).

change to append the “E” modifier is publicly reported on the OTCBB Daily List.¹¹ This identifier notifies investors and other market participants that the issuer is not current, or that the NASD staff does not have sufficient information to determine if the issuer is current, in its reporting obligations.¹²

NASD Rule 6530 generally permits the continued quoting of securities of delinquent issuers for a specified grace period.¹³ Questions have been raised as to from what date the grace period, if applicable, commences. NASD is clarifying that the grace period, if applicable, is calculated from the date notification of the pending symbol change to append the “E” modifier is published on the OTCBB Daily List. If the issuer does not comply within any applicable grace period provided by NASD Rule 6530 and no request for review by a hearing panel has been received,¹⁴ then the securities of the issuer are removed from quotation on the OTCBB following ¹¹ Notice of a pending symbol change is publicly reported on the OTCBB Daily List within seven business days of the due date of the report. The “E” modifier is then appended to the issuer’s security symbol within two business days thereafter. The OTCBB Daily List is available at <http://www.otcbb.com>.

¹² A list of delinquent issuers is available on <http://www.otcbb.com>.

¹³ The grace period set forth in NASD Rule 6530 varies depending on the type of issuer. OTCBB issuers that file with the Commission are subject to a 30 calendar day grace period, whereas, OTCBB issuers that do not file with the Commission, but are required to file with other regulators (i.e., banks, savings associations, and insurance companies) are afforded a 60 calendar day grace period. Pursuant to NASD Rule 6530(e), however, the third time an OTCBB issuer is delinquent in the prior two-year period, that issuer’s securities will be removed from quotation on the OTCBB without the benefit of any grace period for the third delinquency, although seven calendar days will be provided to request a review of the staff determination by a hearing panel. See Securities Exchange Act Release No. 52786 (November 16, 2005), 70 FR 70907 (November 23, 2005) (SR-NASD-2005-011).

a subsequent publication on the OTCBB Daily List of the removal. In this case, notice of removal will appear on the Daily List within one business day after the expiration of the grace period.¹⁵ Alternatively, if the delinquent issuer becomes current in its filings with the Commission or its respective regulator during any applicable grace period provided for in NASD Rule 6530, the “E” modifier will be removed from the trading symbol of that issuer’s security following subsequent publication thereof on the OTCBB Daily List.¹⁶ In this case, notice of the security’s removal until the panel makes its determination. An issuer that is not removed because it files a late report after requesting a hearing but before a decision by the hearing panel has been issued in the matter would not be considered to have failed to file for purposes of NASD Rule 6530(e)(2), however, that issuer would be considered to have filed late for purposes of NASD Rule 6530(e)(1). In a separate filing with the Commission, NASD is proposing to clarify the availability of this review process and to adopt fees for such review. See SR-NASD-2005-067 (available at <http://www.nasd.com>). See also Securities Exchange Act Release No. 52786 (November 16, 2005), 70 FR 70907 (November 23, 2005) (SR-NASD-2005-011).

symbol change will appear on the OTCBB Daily List within one business day after the filing of the complete periodic report.¹⁷

2. Statutory Basis

NASD believes that the proposed rule change is consistent with the provisions of Section 15A(b)(6) of the Act, which requires, among other things, that NASD rules must be designed to prevent fraudulent and manipulative acts and practices, to promote just and equitable principles of trade, and, in general, to protect investors and the public interest. NASD believes that the proposed rule change will clarify and provide greater transparency to the process for removing the securities of issuers from quotation on the OTCBB that fail to comply with the reporting requirements in NASD Rule 6530.

B. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Burden on Competition

NASD does not believe that the proposed rule change will result in any burden on competition that is not necessary or appropriate in furtherance of the purposes of the Act, as amended.

C. Self-Regulatory Organization's Statement on Comments on the Proposed Rule Change Received from Members, Participants, or Others

Written comments were neither solicited nor received by NASD.

III. Date of Effectiveness of the Proposed Rule Change and Timing for Commission Action

The proposed rule change has become effective pursuant to Section 19(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act¹⁸ and Rule 19b-4(f)(1) thereunder,¹⁹ in that the proposed rule change constitutes a stated policy, practice, or interpretation with respect to the meaning, administration, or enforcement of an existing rule of NASD.

At any time within 60 days of the filing of the proposed rule change, the Commission may summarily abrogate such rule change if it appears to the Commission that such action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest, for the protection of investors, or otherwise in furtherance of the purposes of the Act.

IV. Solicitation of Comments

Interested persons are invited to submit written data, views and arguments concerning the foregoing, including whether the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act. Comments may be submitted by any of the following methods:

Electronic Comments:

- Use the Commission's Internet comment form (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>); or
- Send an e-mail to rule-comments@sec.gov. Please include File Number SR-NASD-2006-029 on the subject line.

Paper Comments:

- Send paper comments in triplicate to Nancy M. Morris, Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 100 F Street, NE, Washington, DC 20549-1090.

All submissions should refer to File Number SR-NASD-2006-029. This file number should be included on the subject line if e-mail is used. To help the Commission process and review your comments more efficiently, please use only one method. The Commission will post all comments on the Commission's Internet Web site (<http://www.sec.gov/rules/sro.shtml>). Copies of the submission, all subsequent amendments, all written statements with respect to the proposed rule change that are filed with the Commission, and all written communications relating to the proposed rule change between the Commission and any person, other than those that may be withheld from the public in accordance with the provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552, will be available for inspection and copying in the Commission's Public Reference Room. Copies of the filing also will be available for inspection and copying at the principal office of NASD. All comments received will be posted without change; the Commission does not edit personal identifying information from submissions. You should submit only information that you wish to make available publicly. All submissions should refer to the File Number SR-NASD-2006-029 and should be submitted on or before [insert date 21 days from publication in the Federal Register].
