

U.S. SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C.

SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 56537 / September 26, 2007

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING
File No. 3-12836

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION INSTITUTES
ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDING AGAINST NOVATEK INTERNATIONAL, INC. A/K/A MEDICAL DIAGNOSTIC PRODUCTS, INC. FOR FAILURE TO MAKE REQUIRED PERIODIC FILINGS

The Securities and Exchange Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against Novatek International, Inc. a/k/a Medical Diagnostic Products, Inc. (“Novatek”) to determine whether to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to revoke the registration of each class of its securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”).

In the order instituting administrative proceedings against Novatek, the Division of Enforcement alleges that Novatek’s securities were registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act. The Division also alleges that Exchange Act Section 13(a) and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 promulgated thereunder, require issuers with classes of securities registered pursuant to Exchange Act Section 12 to file with the Commission current and accurate information in public reports. The Division further alleges that Novatek is delinquent in its required periodic filings with the Commission, having last filed a periodic report for the period ended June 30, 1996.

A hearing will be scheduled before an Administrative Law Judge to determine whether the allegations contained in the order instituting proceedings are true, to provide Novatek an opportunity to dispute these allegations, and to determine whether it is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors to suspend for a period not exceeding twelve months or to revoke the registration of each class of Novatek’s securities registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Exchange Act.

Pursuant to the Commission’s Rules of Practice, an initial decision will be issued by the administrative law judge within 120 days from the service of the Order Instituting Proceedings.
