SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 91452 / April 1, 2021

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-19926

In the Matter of

BILLION HOLDING INC.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) issued an Order Instituting Proceedings (“OIP”) on August 25, 2020, pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, against Billion Holding Inc. (“Respondent”).¹

On February 19, 2021, the Division of Enforcement filed the Supplemental Declaration of Sandhya C. Harris, which stated that the OIP was sent via certified mail to Respondent’s registered agent in Delaware and delivered on February 6, 2021. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule 141(a)(2)(ii) of the Commission’s Rules of Practice, service of the OIP was made on Respondent on February 6, 2021.²

As stated in the OIP, Respondent’s answer was required to be filed within ten days of service of the OIP.³ As of the date of this order, Respondent has not filed an answer. The prehearing conference and the hearing are thus continued indefinitely.

Accordingly, Respondent is ORDERED to SHOW CAUSE by April 15, 2021, why the registration of its securities should not be revoked by default due to its failure to file an answer and to otherwise defend this proceeding. When a party defaults, the allegations in the OIP will be deemed to be true and the Commission may determine the proceeding against that party upon consideration of the record without holding a public hearing.

If Respondent fails to respond to this order to show cause, it may be deemed in default, the proceeding may be determined against it, and the registration of its securities may be revoked.⁴ Upon review of the filings in response to this order, the Commission will either direct further proceedings by subsequent order or issue a final order resolving the matter.

The parties' attention is called to the Commission's March 18, 2020 order regarding the filing and service of papers, which provides that pending further order of the Commission parties to the extent possible shall submit all filings electronically at apfilings@sec.gov.⁵ Also, the Commission's Rules of Practice were recently amended to include new e-filing requirements, which take effect on April 12, 2021.⁶
