SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 80275 / March 20, 2017

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“Commission”) announced the temporary suspension, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”), of trading in the securities of Ubiquity, Inc. (“Ubiquity”) (OTC Link: UBIQ), commencing at 9:30 a.m. EDT on March 20, 2017, and terminating at 11:59 p.m. EDT on March 31, 2017.

The Commission temporarily suspended trading in the securities of Ubiquity due to a lack of current and accurate information about the company because Ubiquity is delinquent in its requisite periodic filings with the Commission pursuant to Section 13(a) of the Exchange Act and Rules 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder. This order was entered pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act.

The Commission cautions brokers, dealers, shareholders, and prospective purchasers that they should carefully consider the foregoing information along with all other currently available information and any information subsequently issued by the company.

Further, brokers and dealers should be alert to the fact that, pursuant to Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11, at the termination of the trading suspension, no quotation may be entered relating to the securities of Ubiquity unless and until the broker or dealer has strictly complied with all of the provisions of the rule. If any broker or dealer is uncertain as to what is required by the rule, it should refrain from entering quotations relating to the securities of Ubiquity until such time as it has familiarized itself with the rule and is certain that all of its provisions have been met. Any broker or dealer with questions regarding the rule should contact the staff of the Division of Trading and Markets, Office of Interpretation and Guidance at (202) 551-5777. If any broker or dealer enters any quotation which is in violation of the rule, the Commission will consider the need for prompt enforcement action.

If any broker, dealer or other person has any information which may relate to this matter, they should contact David Frohlich of the Division of Enforcement at (202) 551-4963.
