ANNOUNCEMENT OF PUBLIC AVAILABILITY PUBLIC COMMENTS ON THE SHORT SALE RULES

The SEC today announced that it is making available for public examination a number of letters submitted to it by participants in the consolidated transaction reporting system and other interested commentators concerning amendments to Sections 10a-1 and 10a-2 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "short sale rules") declared effective in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 11030 (September 27, 1974) and temporarily suspended in Securities Exchange Act Release No. 11056 (October 17, 1974). Release No. 34-11056 stated the Commission is undertaking a reconsideration of the amendments to the short sale rules. The Commission will announce shortly the extent, and nature of, its reconsideration of the amendments. Copies of the letters will be made available for examination at the Commission's Office of Public Reference, File No. S7-515. (Rel. 34-11117)

IMPROVEMENT OF COMMISSION'S PUBLIC DISSEMINATION PROGRAM IS UNDER CONSIDERATION

The Commission is considering the issue of a Request for Proposals for the continuation and possible expansion of the Commission's programs and systems for the storage and public dissemination of information filed with the Commission.

A notice is being published in the Commerce Business Daily and the Federal Register inviting companies with experience in this type of work to submit a statement of their qualifications to the Commission by December 20, 1974.

Interested persons are referred to those publications for details. However, a limited number of copies of the notice sent to the Commerce Business Daily will be available until December 1, 1974 upon request to the Director of Administrative Services, Securities and Exchange Commission, Washington, D.C. 20549.

IRVING SOMMER NAMED ADMINISTRATIVE LAW JUDGE

The SEC today announced the appointment of Irving Sommer as Administrative Law Judge, effective November 25, 1974. Before joining the Commission Staff he was employed as an Administrative Law Judge with the Department of Health, Education & Welfare in Richmond, Virginia from April 1965; previous thereto he was Tax Counsel and Formal Hearing Referee, Department of Excise Taxes, City of New York for over 10 years, and had engaged in private practice of law since his admission to the bar in 1948. Judge Sommer graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1943, and from the Brooklyn Law School in 1948, and is a member of the New York Bar. Judge Sommer and his wife Myra, are the parents of two children, Valerie, a senior at Syracuse University and Joshua, a freshman at the University of Virginia.

H. BURLIN TEXIER APPOINTED SPECIAL COUNSEL, OFFICE OF OIL AND GAS

The Division of Corporation Finance today announced the appointment of H. Burlin Texier to the newly established position of Special Counsel to the Chief, Office of Oil and Gas. In his new assignment Mr. Texier serves as counsel to the Office of Oil and Gas on all legal issues involved in the administration of the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as they pertain to the specialized area of oil and gas.

Mr. Texier joined the Commission's staff in October 1959. He has served continuously in the Division of Corporation Finance in increasingly more responsible positions.

Mr. Texier graduated magna cum laude from Georgetown University in 1952 and received his L.L.B. from Albany Law School in 1955.

COURT ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS

COMPLAINT NAMES VIRGINIA OIL AND GAS COMPANY, OTHERS

The Washington Regional Office announced that on November 15 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, Newport News Division, for a preliminary and permanent injunction against Virginia Oil and Gas Company (VOG) and Benjamin P. McRae, both of Newport News, Virginia, and Sheldon Bendit, Coleman I. Schwartz, Penn Resources, Inc. '71 (Penn), and Franklin Energy Corporation (Franklin), all of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Commission in its complaint further seeks an accounting and the appointment of a receiver with respect to VOG only. In its complaint the Commission alleges that VOG and McRae violated the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and that Bendit, Schwartz, Penn and Franklin violated the registration provisions of the securities laws. (SEC v. Virginia Oil and Gas, Inc., et al., U.S.D.C., Ed. Va.). (LR-6603)

COMPLAINT NAMES CONTINENTAL SILVER CORPORATION OF NEVADA, OTHERS

The Denver Regional Office announced that on November 13 an order for entry of default judgment was entered against Continental Silver Corporation of Nevada and Continental Silver Corporation of Colorado by Judge Sherman G. Finesilver of the U.S. District Court for the District of Colorado. The named defendants had failed to plead or otherwise defend against the allegations charged by the Commission in its complaint filed April 22, 1974.

The court ordered, among other things, that the named defendants be permanently enjoined from directly or indirectly offering for sale, selling, offering to purchase or purchasing any securities in the form of silver investment agreements, or any other securities of any issuer whatsoever, that the named defendants provide the court an accounting of all funds received from investors in connection with the silver investment agreements, and that the named defendants be required to disgorge all funds which they received of their sales or purchases of securities described in the complaint. (SEC v. Continental Silver Corporation of Nevada, et al., D. Colo., Civil Action No. 74-F-364). (LR-6604)

COMPLAINT NAMES FIRST NATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION, OTHERS

The Chicago Regional Office announced the filing on November 18 of a complaint in Federal District Court, Chicago, Illinois, seeking to enjoin First National Finance Corporation, Leichner Industries, Inc., Burhold, Inc. and Roy Burslem, all of Champaign, Illinois, from violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws, in the offer and sale of notes of First National Finance Corporation. (SEC v. First National Finance Corporation, N.D. Ill., Civil No. 74-C-3330). (LR-6605)

COMPLAINT NAMES DOUGLAS S. WARREN, OTHERS

The Denver Regional Office announced the filing on November 18 of a complaint in the U.S. District Court for Utah seeking to enjoin Douglas S. Warren of Provo, Utah, Hans J. Berger of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Lynn H. Zemp of Orem, Utah, from violating the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws in the offer and sale of securities issued by Universal Trade Corporation, a Utah corporation, located in Salt Lake City, Utah, namely, investment contracts, evidences of indebtedness and interests and instruments commonly known as a security consisting of representations, agreements, and services, both express and implied, which are to be provided by Universal Trade Corporation and the defendants in connection with sales of silver bullion and medallions. (SEC v. Douglas S. Warren, et al., U.S.D.C. Utah, C-74-362). (LR-6606)

COMPLAINT NAMES EDWARD A. COX AND FRANK H. MCCrackEN

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on November 20 the Commission filed a complaint in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois against Edward A. Cox, of Oakbrook, Illinois and Frank H. McCracken, of New Cannan, Connecticut, and a member of the board of directors of Reliance Group, Inc., seeking a preliminary injunction and a final judgment of permanent injunction for violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. Among other things, the Commission's complaint alleges that McCracken gave Cox material nonpublic information regarding Reliance Group, Inc. and that Cox acting on this information bought 40,000 shares of Reliance common stock immediately prior to the public announcement of a tender offer by Reliance for its own shares. The complaint also requests the court to order Cox to disgorge the estimated $75,000 profit he made on the subsequent sale of the Reliance Group stock. (SEC v. Edward A. Cox, et al., N.D. Ill., Civil Action No. 74-C-3363). (LR-6607)

DOUGLAS M. YEAMAN, OTHERS, ENJOINED

The SEC announced that on November 4 and September 4 U.S. District Judge Frederick B. Lacey entered orders permanently enjoining Douglas M. Yeaman and Frank D. Bellucci III respectively from violating the securities laws. Yeaman was enjoined from violating the registration and antifraud provisions, and Bellucci was enjoined from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The violations were in connection with the purchase and sale of the common stock of Computron Corporation and its successor Star-Glo Industries, Inc. Both Yeaman and Bellucci consented to the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the complaint. (SEC v. Marvin S. Bernstein, et al., U.S.D.C. N.J. 914-73). (LR-6608)

MARTIN D. NASS INDICTED

The Atlanta Regional and Miami Branch Offices announced that on November 22 a Federal Grand Jury sitting in Orlando, Florida, returned a 13-count indictment against Martin D. Nass of Daytona Beach, Florida. The indictment charges the defendant with criminal violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws as well as the interstate transportation of fraudulently obtained bank drafts. The defendant, formerly vice president and office manager of Thomson & McKinnon, Auchincloss Kohlmeyer, Inc.'s Daytona Beach, Florida branch office, is charged with removing funds from customer accounts, and selling non-existent bonds and certificates of deposit of customers of Thomson & McKinnon, Auchincloss, Kohlmeyer and converting the proceeds to his own use and benefit. (U.S. v. Martin D. Nass, M.D. Fla.). (LR-6609)
