CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

COMPLAINT NAMES TELCO INFORMATION SERVICES, OTHERS

The New York Regional Office announced that on December 6 a complaint was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York seeking to enjoin Telco Information Services, whose principal offices were located in New York City, Vittorio Widemann International Corporation (VWI), whose principal offices were located in New York City, Norman T. Forsyth of Park Ridge, New Jersey, Francis X. Orofino of Greenwich, Connecticut, L. Henry Sarmiento of New York City, Stanley E. Wiklinski of Rutherford, New Jersey, David C. Heenan of New York City, James P. Sherlock, Jr., of Clifton, New Jersey, and Robert M. Kolterman of New York City, from engaging further violations of the registration and antifraud provisions of the securities laws, and seeking to enjoin William J. Flaherty from engaging in further violations of the antifraud provisions of the securities laws. The complaint also seeks certain ancillary relief in the form of an accounting and disgorgement of profits by Forsyth, Orofino and Sarmiento.

The complaint alleges that from May, 1977 through September, 1977, the defendants participated in a scheme to sell unregistered securities, in the form of convertible promissory notes of VWI, while concurrently manipulating the over-the-counter trading market for Telco common stock in order to artificially raise and maintain the price of such stock. The complaint further alleges that the defendants released false information to investors concerning, among other things, the financial condition of Telco and VWI, the use of proceeds from the sale of VWI notes, the future market price of Telco stock, the terms of the VWI notes, and the risks involved in the purchase of VWI notes or Telco stock. (SEC v. Telco Information Services, et al., U.S.D.C., S.D.N.Y., Civil Action No. 79-CIV-6649). (LR-8950)
