CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

MARION ALBERT ARTURE PERMANENTLY ENJOINED

The Los Angeles Regional Office announced that on November 10 a civil injunctive action was filed in the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California against Marion Albert Arture of San Clemente, California, a former registered account-trader with Charles Schwab & Co.

The complaint alleges that during 1980 Arture fraudulently obtained approximately $900,000 from his victims for the purpose of investing in what he described as "discounted securities." Arture is alleged to have told his victims that certain brokerage customers of Schwab were willing to sell their securities at a substantial discount for immediate cash, rather than wait the seven-day settlement period generally required before payment. The complaint further alleges that Arture solicited cash and cashier's checks from his victims by telling them he would purchase and resell these "discounted securities" on their behalf, returning their initial investment plus a profit. The complaint further alleges that although Arture mailed fictitious confirmation slips to several victims and returned certain of the initial "investments" plus a profit, in fact he never purchased or sold any securities on behalf of his victims but instead converted the funds to his own use.

Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Arture consented to the entry of an order for permanent injunction without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the complaint. The Order for Permanent Injunction restrains him from future violations of the antifraud provisions of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and of Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. (SEC v. Marion Albert Arture, U.S.D.C. D.C. Cal., Civil Action No. 82-5821). (LR-9814)

JUDGMENT OF PERMANENT INJUNCTION BY CONSENT ENTERED AGAINST ABNER M. KEPPLER

The New York Regional Office announced that the Honorable Robert J. Ward, District Judge, U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York, entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction by Consent against Abner M. Keppler of Yonkers, New York. Keppler consented to entry of the judgment without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The Commission's complaint, which was filed on February 25, 1982, alleged that from February 1978 Keppler engaged in scheme whereby he (a) sold the common stock of Anglo American Properties, Inc. and Sunny Land Tours, Inc. in non-exempt transactions when no registration statements were on file or in effect with the Commission; (b) participated in a scheme to manipulate the prices of Sunny Land and Anglo stock; and (c) made untrue statements of material fact and omitted to state material facts, necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, in connection with the offer and sale of Sunny Land stock to his customers. (SEC v. Arnold S. Cohen, et al., 82 Civil 1154, SDNY, RJW). (LR-9815)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

AIME J. SARAULT INDICTED

The Honorable Lincoln C. Almond, U.S. Attorney for the District of Rhode Island, and Willis H. Riccio, Administrator of the Boston Regional Office jointly announced that a Federal Grand Jury, sitting at Providence, Rhode Island, returned a four-count indictment against Aime J. Sarault of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, and his son, Steven Sarault, presently of Fort Lauderdale and a former Providence, Rhode Island attorney.

The indictment charges A. Sarault in two counts of violating the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 (Section 10(b) and Rule 10b-5) and in two counts of transporting a falsely made security (18 USC 2314). S. Sarault was charged with aiding and abetting the securities violations. The indictment charges that commencing on or about January 29, 1980, A. Sarault opened an options trading account with a Providence, Rhode Island brokerage firm and proceeded to place orders for the purpose and sale of securities, namely options, on the common stock of Bally Manufacturing Co., Inc. The orders, according to the indictment were executed on the New York Stock Exchange. According to the indictment, A. Sarault caused the broker to credit his account with a $150,000 draft drawn on an alleged bank, the Societe Generale de Commerce (Overseas) Ltd. of Nassau, Bahamas, an entity which was not in fact a duly chartered bank licensed to conduct banking activities. The indictment further alleges that the draft was uncollectible and when advised of this by the broker a second draft drawn on the same institution and in the same amount was presented by A. Sarault, which also was uncollectible and worthless.

According to the grand jury, during the period February 19, 1980 through April 1, 1980, A. Sarault caused the broker to disburse to him from his account, opened on the basis of the worthless drafts, some $281,686.13. The grand jury alleges this to constitute a manipulative and deceptive device in contravention of the securities laws.

With respect to S. Sarault, the indictment alleges that he aided and abetted his father's misrepresentations to the effect that he (the father) was ready, willing and able to pay and make prompt settlement for securities purchased, by misrepresenting to the broker facts relative to the validity of the drafts, clearance of funds and repayment of money owed to the brokerage firm, among other things. (U.S. v. Aime J. Sarault, et al., District of Rhode Island). (LR-9812)
