PERMANENT INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST RHODE ISLAND INVESTMENT FIRMS

The Boston Regional Office announced that on June 28 Senior Judge Raymond Pettine of the U.S. District Court in Providence, Rhode Island signed an Order of Permanent Injunction against Neil Stephens Associates, Inc., Neil Stephens Investment Corp., Bernard Cohen and Neil L. Cohen. The Injunction enjoined the defendants from further violations of the securities laws. The defendants consented to the entry of the Order without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. The Court also continued a receivership ordered on November 19, 1981.

Judge Pettine had earlier on November 19, 1981, after hearing, granted the Commission's request for preliminary injunctions against the same defendants. (SEC v. Neil Stephens Associates, Inc., et al.). (LR-10057)

APPLICATION FOR A PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION AGAINST BLINDER ROBINSON DENIED

The Denver Regional Office announced that on June 6 the Honorable John L. Kane, Jr., U.S. District Court Judge for the District of Colorado, denied the Plaintiff's Application for a Preliminary Injunction, Appointment of a Special Officer and Other Equitable Relief against Blinder Robinson & Co., Inc., Meyer Blinder and Larry Blinder, filed by the Commission on April 15, 1983 and amended on May 12, 1983. Judge Kane denied Plaintiff's request that the defendants be preliminarily enjoined from violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and other provisions of the Exchange Act and rules relating to: books and records, preservation of books and records, customer reserve protection, broker-dealer notice and reporting requirements and quarterly box count requirements. Judge Kane also denied the Commission's request for equitable relief, including, among other things, an order requiring defendants to account for all customer fully-paid securities which the Commission alleged Blinder Robinson caused or allowed to be taken during the period September 13, 1982 to May 12, 1983, to satisfy Blinder Robinson's obligations to deliver securities for which Blinder Robinson did not have permission from customers, and the appointment of a Special Officer to supervise the accounting. (SEC v. Blinder, Robinson & Co., Inc., et al., U.S.D.C. D. Colorado, Civil Action No. 83-K-668). (LR-10058)

PLAZA REALTY INVESTORS ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 28 the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction against Plaza Realty Investors (PRI) of Forest Hills, New York, restraining and enjoining PRI from failing to file timely periodic reports and ordering it to comply with certain undertakings. The Commission's complaint, filed on May 20, 1983, alleged that PRI, as part of a continuing course of violative conduct extending over several years, failed to file and file timely with the Commission certain annual and quarterly reports required to have been filed. PRI, consenting to the entry of the Court's judgment, admitted that it had filed reports in an untimely manner on 17 separate occasions and had failed to file Notifications of Late Filing on 11 separate occasions. (SEC v. Plaza Realty Investors, U.S.D.C. D.C., Civil Action No. 83-1450). (LR-10059)

THOMAS R. BRIMBERRY SENTENCED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on June 24 the Honorable William Beatty, U.S. District Court Judge for the Southern District of Illinois, sentenced Thomas R. Brimberry to ten consecutive years of imprisonment relating to his conviction by a jury of two counts of obstructing the due administration of justice. The sentences imposed were the maximum allowable under the statutes and concern Brimberry's effort to impede two federal grand juries in their investigations of the theft of $16 million from Stix & Co. Inc., formerly a St. Louis broker-dealer, now in liquidation under the Securities Investor Protection Act. (U.S. v. Thomas R. Brimberry, U.S.D.C. S.D. Ill., Criminal No. 82-50034). (LR-10061)
