ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

INSTITUTION AND SETTLEMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST A. G. BECKER PARIBAS INCORPORATED

The Commission entered an Order Instituting Proceedings, under Sections 15(b) and 19(h) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Findings, Opinion and Order of the Commission (the Order), under an Offer of Settlement submitted by A. G. Becker Paribas Incorporated, a registered Chicago, Illinois broker-dealer.

The Order was based on findings that Becker wilfully violated the net capital, customer protection, bookkeeping, financial reporting and margin provisions of the Exchange Act and of Regulation T issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, and of failure to supervise. Becker consented to the Order without admitting or denying any of the allegations.

The Order provides for a censure of Becker and directs the firm to comply with certain undertakings to assure compliance with the above provisions. Becker will also submit confirmations to the Commission's staff for two years that certain reports are being made at least quarterly to Becker's senior management. (Rel. 34-20492)

* The News Digest dated December 16, 1983 had an incorrect Issue Number. The correct Issue Number is 83-242, not 83-241.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS ORDERED AGAINST DON A. WILLIAMS

The Commission ordered public administrative proceedings under Section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 against Don A. Williams of Canton, Ohio. The Order for Proceedings alleges that Williams: violated the antifraud provisions of the securities laws in that he received monies from customers in payment for securities purchased by those customers and converted the monies to his own personal use and benefit; and issued confirmations and monthly account statements to his customers which contained false representations concerning the customers' investment.

A hearing will be scheduled to determine whether the allegations are true and, if so, what, if any remedial action is appropriate. (Rel. 34-20466)

CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

ROBERT R. HILLS AND DIVERSIFIED ENERGY MANAGEMENT CORPORATION ENJOINED

The Chicago Regional Office announced that on December 6 Judge Prentice H. Marshall, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, signed Final Judgments of Permanent Injunction as to Robert R. Hills and Diversified Energy Management Corporation (DEMCO). Hills and DEMCO, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, consented to the permanent injunctions against them.

The complaint alleges that: Hills, between 1976 and 1980, raised approximately $6,800,000 from at least 800 investors in the sale of oil and gas interests; Hills commingled the funds raised, failed to drill several wells and complete others, and did not timely record investors' interests; and from about November 1982 to the present, Hills and DEMCO have been offering to exchange DEMCO stock for other securities without disclosing DEMCO's financial condition, the value, registration status and marketability of DEMCO's stock, and Hills' recent indictment for securities fraud.

On November 9, simultaneously with the filing of the complaint, Hills and DEMCO consented, without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, to preliminary injunctions against them. (SEC v. Robert R. Hills and Diversified Energy Management Corporation, N.D. IL, Civil Action No. 83C8067). (LR-10231)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

CALIFORNIAN INDICTED FOR FRAUD IN UTAH

Brent D. Ward, U.S. Attorney for the District of Utah, the Denver Regional Office, and the Salt Lake City Branch Office announced that on November 30 a federal grand jury in Salt Lake City returned an 18-count indictment against Charles Allen Jensen of Altadena, California, charging him with four counts of securities fraud, 13 counts of mail fraud, and one count of wire fraud. The indictment charges that Jensen: from about July 1975 until January 1980, told salesmen and investors he was about to conclude various contracts for crude oil with Kuwait, Indonesia, Nigeria, China, Mexico and Saudi Arabia, and needed money for business expenses, including travel, to finalize the contracts; omitted to disclose to investors that he had not obtained contracts as were represented to previous investors, and that most of the money invested would not be used for expenses related to closing crude oil contracts but would be used by Jensen for personal expenses and obligations; failed to disclose that his obtaining of a contract for crude oil with China was contingent upon his arranging for a $90 billion loan to China; and gave investors promissory notes and promised them a portion of the profits from the oil contracts.

The case was assigned to Judge Bruce S. Jenkins, U.S. District Court for the District of Utah. (U.S. v. Charles Allen Jensen, USDC, UT, CR-83-93-W). (LR-10232)

The U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York and the New York Regional Office announced that on December 7 E. Jacques Courtois, Jr. pleaded guilty to conspiracy and securities fraud charges that he misappropriated from his former employer, Morgan Stanley & Co., confidential information about impending corporate takeovers and leaked the information to confederates who purchased securities of the target companies. Courtois agreed to pay $150,000 into a fund to reimburse partially the selling investors for their losses. He faces up to five years imprisonment and $10,000 in fines for each of the four counts arising from a scheme carried out from 1975 through 1978 and which he admitted involved eight corporate situations. (U.S. v. E. Jacques Courtois, Jr., 81 Cr. 53 (CSH), SDNY). (LR-10234)
