These functions were previously performed by the former Division of Corporate Regulation.

These cash awards are one component of the Senior Executive Service performance appraisal system established by the Civil Service Reform Act. Under that system, members of the Commission's senior staff are required, at the beginning of each year, to set forth in writing their objectives for the year. At the conclusion of the year, each SES member's supervisor reviews the manager's work against his or her objectives and rates performance. These evaluations are reviewed by both the Commission's Performance Review Board and the Chairman. The bonus decisions are based on the results of this appraisal process.

ADDITION TO WEEKLY CALENDAR

Chairman Shad will testify on Thursday, January 26, before the Subcommittee on Mining, Forest Management, and BPA of the Interior and Insular Affairs Committee at 10:00 a.m., 1324 Longworth Building, concerning Washington Public Power Supply System (WPPSS).
