CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST HARRY ABRAMS

The Commission filed a Civil Complaint on November 27 in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York charging Harry Abrams, president and controlling shareholder of Omni Mutual, Inc., a broker-dealer that was registered with the Commission and ultimately liquidated pursuant to the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970, with violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws and with aiding and abetting Omni's violations of the financial responsibility, recordkeeping, and reporting provisions of the securities laws.

The Complaint alleged that Abrams defrauded investors in connection with a Regulation D offering of Omni's shares. It also alleged that Abrams aided and abetted Omni's violations of numerous back office provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Without admitting or denying the Complaint's allegations, Abrams consented to a Final Judgment permanently enjoining him from the above described violations. (SEC v. Harry Abrams, USDC SDNY, Civil Action No. 89-CIV-7849-KC). (LR-12308)

CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

FORMER STOCKBROKER PLEADS GUILTY

The Boston Regional Office and the U.S. Attorney for the District of Massachusetts announced that on November 20 Walter F. Curran of Wellesley, Massachusetts, a former stockbroker, pled guilty to 13 counts of mail fraud in connection with a scheme to defraud seven investors of in excess of $2 million. He was arrested on February 17 while crossing the border from Canada into the United States. At the time he had in excess of $120,000 in currency in his possession. As part of a plea agreement, Curran agreed to plead guilty to a currency reporting violation in connection with his failure to declare his currency when entering the United States. Curran's plea to the currency violation and sentencing on all charges has been set for January 19, 1990. [The case was investigated by the FBI and U.S. Customs Service, with the assistance of the Boston Regional Office.] (U.S. v. Walter F. Curran, No. 89-65-H, District of Massachusetts). (LR-12305)
