COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

REORGANIZATION OF THE COMMISSION'S OFFICE OF INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Effective today, the Office of Information Technology is reorganized into four major components, reporting to the Chief Information Officer, to facilitate integrated management of all SEC information system assets.

The new OIT organization will consist of four units as follows: (1) The Office of Planning and Policy will address overarching information architecture, technical and policy issues, oversee budget and administration and provide effective security and quality assurance functions; (2) The Office of Systems Support will provide cradle-to-grave software applications support for all elements of the SEC, including oversight of EDGAR contractor technical performance and development of Risk Assessment and Large Trader systems; (3) The Office of Operations will run the Commission's processing centers and will provide communications services, including telephone support; and (4) The Office of User Support Services will provide SEC direct user support, EDGAR filer support and office automation support.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS

COMMISSION SUSTAINS TWO NASD ACTIONS AGAINST PAUL KETTLER

The Commission has sustained two NASD actions against Paul C. Kettler of Chicago, Illinois, proprietor of former NASD member firm Kettler & Co. In the first action, the NASD censured Kettler, fined him $10,000, suspended him from association with any member for thirty days and required him to requalify as a general principal. In the second action, the NASD censured Kettler and fined him $5,000.

In the first case, the Commission found, as had the NASD, that in 1989 Kettler employed and/or permitted to be associated with his firm an individual whom Kettler knew or should have known had been barred by the NASD. The Commission found that Kettler had been on notice for an extended period that the NASD was investigating the individual for serious misconduct, and that Kettler's failure to conduct his own investigation was, at a minimum, reckless. The Commission noted that a firm and its principal, once aware that a self-regulatory organization has inquired into alleged misconduct by an associated person, act at their peril in relying solely upon assurances by that person that the matter has been resolved without adverse action.

In the second case, the Commission found, as had the NASD, that in 1987 Kettler failed to supervise adequately a salesman who engaged in unsuitable options trading in a customer's account. The Commission found that the extent of the salesman's trading in the customer's account did not fit the customer's limited financial resources and conservative objectives and provided Kettler with clear "red flags." In sustaining the sanctions, the Commission emphasized that internal compliance is the first line of defense against trading abuses. (Rel. 34-31354)

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST SCOTT CONWAY, CHRISTOPHER ELLIS AND KENDRICK BYTHEWAY

The Commission instituted public administrative proceedings against Scott Conway, Christopher Ellis and Kendrick Bytheway. The proceedings were instituted under Section 21C of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Simultaneously, each respondent submitted an offer of settlement which the Commission accepted. Accordingly, the Commission entered an order making findings, among other things, that the respondents, who were the original officers and directors of Calico Corporation (Calico), participated in a scheme to defraud public investors of Calico by knowingly or recklessly providing false information regarding the officers, directors, stockholders and proposed business of Calico to the public and the Commission in Commission filings and in a conference with a Commission staff person. Additionally, Conway, as president of Calico, signed reports filed with the Commission which omitted material information regarding a proposed merger. Also, the Commission ordered that Conway, Bytheway and Ellis cease and desist from committing or causing violations, and any future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder and additionally, with respect to Conway, cease and desist from committing or causing violations of, and any future violations of Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act. (Rel. 34-31356)

ACQUISITION OF SECURITIES

Companies and individuals must report to the Commission within ten days on Schedule 13D if after the acquisition of equity securities of a public company their beneficial interest therein exceeds five percent. Persons eligible to use the short form (Schedule 13G) may in lieu of filing a Schedule 13D file a Schedule 13G within 45 days after the end of the calendar year in which the person became subject to Section 13(d)(1). Companies and individuals making a tender offer must have on file at the time the tender offer commences a Schedule 14D-1.

Below is a list of recent filings of Schedules 13D and 14D, which includes the following information: Column 1 - the company purchased (top), and the name of the purchaser; Column 2 - the type of security purchased; Column 3 - the type of form filed; Column 4 - the date the transaction occurred; Column 5 - the current number of shares (in 000's) owned (top) and the current percent owned; Column 6 - the CUSIP number (top) and the percent owned; and Column 7 - the status of the filing, i.e., new, update or revision.
