COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

STAFF ACCOUNTING BULLETIN NO. 97

Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 97 sets forth the staff's interpretation of generally accepted accounting principles with respect to two issues involving business combinations. The first issue involves the inappropriate application of Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 48, "Transfers of Nonmonetary Assets by Promoters or Shareholders," to purchase business combinations consummated just prior to or concurrent with an initial public offering. The second issue involves the identification of an accounting acquirer for purchase business combinations involving more than two entities.

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

JOHN SILSETH BARRED FROM ASSOCIATING WITH ANY REGULATED ENTITY AND CEASE-AND-DESIST ORDER ENTERED AGAINST HIM

The Commission entered an Order Making Findings and Imposing Remedial Sanctions (Order) against John Silseth (Silseth). Silseth had submitted an Offer of Settlement consenting to the entry of the Order. The Order bars Silseth from associating with any regulated entity and imposes a cease-and-desist order against him from violating the antifraud provisions of the securities laws (Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder). The Order imposes disgorgement in the amount of $18,937.50, plus interest thereon, but waives disgorgement and interest based on inability to pay. The Order notes that no civil penalty is being imposed against Silseth based upon demonstrated inability to pay.

The Order finds that Silseth assisted in a stock manipulation involving Angeion Corporation by executing five matched trades involving 178,000 shares of Angeion valued at approximately $1.4 million and two wash trades involving 125,000 shares of Angeion valued at approximately $1.1 million. As a result of executing the trades, Silseth earned $18,937.50 in commissions. (Rel. 33-7317; 34-37493)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AGAINST KENNETH SCHULTE

The Commission announced that public administrative proceedings were instituted against Kenneth J. Schulte (Schulte). The Order Instituting Proceedings (Order) alleges that since 1990, Schulte has been employed as a registered representative of three broker dealers. The Order further alleges that while employed at these three broker-dealers, Schulte sold risky mortgage-backed derivatives to at least 14 Ohio cities, counties and school districts. In addition, the Order alleges that two NASD arbitration judgments have been entered against Schulte arising from these sales. Furthermore, the Order alleges that on April 22, 1996, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Ohio entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Disgorgement against Schulte, which permanently enjoins Schulte from further violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder and ordered Schulte to pay $398,787.62 in disgorgement. The Commission's complaint in this injunctive action alleged that Schulte made material misrepresentations and omissions in connection with the offer and sale of mortgage-backed derivatives. A hearing will be scheduled to determine what, if any, remedial action would be appropriate. (Rel. 34-37494)

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST JAMES SEHN

The Commission has accepted an offer by James A. Sehn (Sehn) to settle an administrative proceeding which was instituted against him on November 22, 1993. Sehn consented to the issuance of an Order Making Findings And Imposing Remedial Sanctions, without admitting or denying the findings, permanently barring him from association with any broker, dealer, investment adviser, investment company or municipal securities dealer. The institution of the administrative proceeding against Sehn was based upon the entry of a final judgment permanently enjoining him from violating Sections 5(a), 5(c) and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 15c1-2 and 17a-5 thereunder (SEC v. Oxford Capital Securities, Inc. et al., 92 Civ. 0935, WCC, SDNY), and Sehn's willful violations of, and willful aiding and abetting violations of, the above provisions of the federal securities laws. (Rel. 34-37498)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST RICHARD LINE

The Commission filed a complaint against Richard J. Line (Line), a registered representative formerly associated with Copeland Equities, Inc., a registered broker-dealer.

The complaint alleges that between August 1991 and February 1995, Line engaged in a scheme to defraud brokerage customers by misappropriating approximately $1.7 million. Line accomplished this by using a college financial aid planning business as a vehicle to fraudulently procure investments and misappropriate investor funds. Line promised parents of college-bound students that by transferring assets to him they would be able to secure increased financial aid for their children. Line told investors that he would invest these transferred assets in securities. Instead, Line misappropriated these funds by converting them to personal use.

The complaint charges Line with violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 15(a)(1) and 15(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5 and 15c1-2, thereunder. The complaint seeks permanent injunctive relief. Simultaneously with the filing of the Commission's complaint, Line consented, without admitting or denying the allegations contained in the complaint, to the entry of an order permanently enjoining him from future violations of the charged provisions. [SEC v. Richard J. Line, E.D. Pa., Civil Action No. 96-5319] (LR-14994)

KATHRYN PREVITE ENJOINED IN PENNY STOCK SCAM

The Commission announced that on July 24, in U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Texas, a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and Other Equitable Relief was entered against Kathryn A. Previte (Previte). The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Previte from future violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c), and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, and Sections 9(a) and 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 10b-5 and 10b-6 thereunder; and orders her to pay disgorgement in the amount of $274,000, plus prejudgment interest thereon; provided however, that all of such disgorgement and prejudgment interest be waived based on her demonstrated financial inability to pay. The Court did not impose a civil penalty on Previte based on her poor financial condition.

The Commission's complaint, filed on September 29, 1995, charged Previte, four other individuals, including Charles S. Christopher, and two corporate entities, one a registered transfer agent, with violations of the securities registration and antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws in a scheme to promote, distribute, and manipulate the market for the securities of EnviroMint Holdings, Inc. (EHI), a penny stock company. The complaint alleged that Previte, who was Christopher's secretary and executive assistant, assisted Christopher and others in manipulating the market for EHI securities by engaging in wash sales and matched orders. [SEC v. EnviroMint Holdings, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 03:95-CV-2192, USDC/ND TX, Dallas Division] (LR-14995)

CAYMAN RESOURCES CORPORATION CONSENTS TO FINAL JUDGMENT

On July 24, the United States District Court for the District of Columbia entered a Final Judgment against Cayman Resources Corporation (Cayman) of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Cayman consented to the entry of the Final Judgment and admitted that it had failed to file six periodic reports, failed to file timely three periodic reports and failed to file six Notifications of Late Filing on Form 12b-25.

The Final Judgment enjoins Cayman from violating Section 13(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 12b-25, 13a-1 and 13a-13 thereunder and requires Cayman to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1994, by August 15, 1996, its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 1995 by August 31, 1996 and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 1996 by September 15, 1996.
