RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

AMENDMENTS TO FORMS AND SCHEDULES TO REMOVE VOLUNTARY PROVISION OF SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS

On June 25, the Commission issued a release adopting revisions to Form 144, Schedule 13D, Schedule 13G, Schedule 14D-1, Form 3, Form

4, Form 5, Form MSD, Form TA-1 and Form T-2 to eliminate the portion of those forms and schedules that requests filers who are natural persons to furnish their Social Security numbers. The Commission has taken this action in response to increasing concern about the improper use of Social Security numbers for access to otherwise non-public information. The changes are effective on the date of their publication in the Federal Register. The Commission's printing unit is preparing new forms. The current forms will continue to be valid, but filers using those forms are requested not to include their Social Security numbers. The release will be available on the Commission's Internet website (<http://www.sec.gov>).

For further information, contact: Marija Willen in the Division of Corporation Finance at (202) 942-1805, or, with respect to Forms MSD and TA-1, Richard C. Strasser in the Division of Market Regulation at (202) 942-0073. (Rel. 33-7424; 34-38771; 35-26733; 39-2354; IC-22727)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

PENDLETON WAUGH SUSPENDED FROM APPEARING OR PRACTICING BEFORE THE COMMISSION PURSUANT TO RULE 102(e)(2)

The Commission announced today that it issued an Order of Suspension Pursuant to Rule 102(e)(2) of the Commission's Rules of Practice against Pendleton C. Waugh. The Order immediately suspends Waugh, an attorney, from appearing or practicing before the Commission based on his conviction of a felony involving moral turpitude and his disbarment in two states.

In July 1994, Waugh pled guilty in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas and was convicted of the felony of conspiracy to evade cash transaction reporting requirements. Waugh admitted in this action that he conspired with others to launder cash from illegal activities by depositing it into various corporate checking accounts in amounts less than $10,000 to evade cash transaction reporting requirements. He was sentenced in January 1995 to a twenty-one month prison term (later reduced to fifteen months), $20,000 in fines, and three years of supervised release. As a result of his guilty plea, Waugh was disbarred from practicing law by the State Bar of Georgia in September 1995 and by the State Bar of Texas in October 1996.

In December 1995, the Commission instituted a civil action against Waugh and others in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in which it alleged that Waugh made materially false and misleading statements and sold unregistered securities in connection with the offer and sale of interests in specialized mobile radio systems and the purchase and sale of the stock of Express Communications, Inc. On March 7, 1997, the Court entered a default judgment against Waugh, and therein enjoined Waugh from future violations of certain provisions of the federal securities laws. The Court also ordered Waugh to pay disgorgement, prejudgment interest and civil penalties totaling $22,969,737. For further information, see Lit. Rel. No. 14753 (December 13, 1995). (Rel. 34-38761)

RULE 102(e) PROCEEDINGS INSTITUTED AND SETTLED AGAINST KENNETH RICHEY

The Commission announced the institution and simultaneous settlement of Rule 102(e) proceedings against Kenneth F. Richey, a certified public accountant practicing in Denver, Colorado, pursuant to which Richey will be suspended from practice before the Commission for nine months. The action arose from Richey's 1993 special review of Random Access, Inc., formerly a publicly-held Colorado-based computer reseller. Richey, who at that time was Random's independent auditor, was engaged to perform agreed-upon procedures to investigate possible improprieties in connection with Random's filing of expense reimbursement claims with its suppliers.

The Commission found that, before completing the procedures, in connection with a 1993 public offering of Random stock, Richey consented to the use of his unqualified audit opinion on Random's fiscal 1992 financial statements and issued a "comfort letter" to underwriters assuring them that the financial statements would not be materially affected by the false claims. The Commission further found that, as a result, Richey failed to obtain sufficient competent evidential matter, to conduct a reasonable subsequent events investigation, and to adequately investigate Random management's possible role in the filing of false expense claims. (Rel. 34-38762; AAE Rel. 926)

ADMINISTRATIVE ACTION AGAINST GARY PRINCE, CPA

On June 24, the Commission instituted proceedings against Gary A. Prince, CPA pursuant to Rule 102(e)(1)(iii) of the Commission's Rules of Practice. Simultaneously, the Commission has accepted Prince's Offer of Settlement in which he consents, without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's Order, to be permanently denied the privilege of appearing or practicing before the Commission as an accountant.

The Order for Proceeding alleges that Prince facilitated a fraudulent scheme to inflate the revenues of a public company and provided false and misleading information to the company's auditors. Prince has previously been enjoined from violating certain antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and pled guilty to two felony counts as a result of the conduct alleged in the Order. See Lit. Rel. No. 14330 (Nov. 15, 1994). (Rel. 34-38765; AAE Rel. 927)

NICHOLAS COSCIA ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on June 18 the United States District Court for the District of Nevada entered an order permanently enjoining Nicholas F. Coscia (Coscia) a California attorney, from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933 (Securities Act) and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (Exchange Act). Coscia consented to the entry of the order without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint. The complaint alleged that Coscia participated with Carl E. Lovell, Philip S. Sindler, and others in a scheme to defraud involving the formation of an ostensibly "blind pool" penny stock company and subsequent manipulation of the market for its securities. Previously, in March 1996, Coscia pled guilty to one count of conspiracy to commit securities fraud relative to his conduct in this matter. [SEC v. Nicholas F. Coscia, Civil Action No. CV-S-97-00704-PMP, RLH, USDC Nev.] (LR-15391)

FORMER EXECUTIVES OF RANDOM ACCESS, INC. NAMED IN INJUNCTIVE COMPLAINT

On June 24, the Commission filed an injunctive action in Denver, Colorado against two former executives of Random Access, Inc., formerly a publicly-held Colorado-based computer reseller. The complaint alleged that Bruce A. Milliken and Richard A. Crawford, Random's chairman of the board and president, respectively, knew of and condoned a scheme from 1991 through January 1993 to obtain reimbursement from Random's suppliers for undocumented promotional expenses. The Commission's complaint alleged that Milliken and Crawford knew or should have known that, as part of the scheme, Random's employees were creating sham invoices and otherwise falsifying the books and records of the company, and that the effect of the scheme was to inflate Random's publicly-reported income. Milliken and Crawford were also alleged to have made and caused to be made false statements to the company's auditors to conceal the scheme.

Milliken and Crawford, without admitting or denying the allegations, each agreed to pay a $50,000 penalty and to be enjoined from violating Section 13(b)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules 13b2-1 and 13b2-2 thereunder. The proposed settlement of the action is pending before the court. [SEC v. Bruce A. Milliken and Richard A. Crawford, Civil Action No. 97-D-1314, D. Colo.] (LR-15392; AAE Rel. 928)

FINAL JUDGMENTS ON CONSENT ENTERED AGAINST JURY MATT HANSEN, FERGUS SLOAN, AND CHRISTIE HANSEN IN SEC v. JURY MATT HANSEN, FERGUS SLOAN, ET AL. AND SEC v. JURY MATT HANSEN, FERGUS SLOAN, CHRISTIE HANSEN, ET AL.

The Commission announced that on June 24 the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York entered Final Judgments of Permanent Injunctive and Other Relief on Consent against Jury Matt Hansen (Hansen) and Fergus Sloan (Sloan) and a Final Judgment of Disgorgement on Consent against Christie Hansen (C. Hansen), in two actions arising out of alleged "free-riding" schemes orchestrated by Sloan and Hansen.

The Commission alleged in its complaints that Hansen and Sloan opened over 800 cash accounts at more than 150 brokerage firms using approximately 120 assumed names to perpetrate the schemes. Hansen and Sloan realized over $6 million in profits and caused hundreds of thousands of dollars in losses to the brokerage firms through which they traded.

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaints, Hansen and Sloan each consented to permanent injunctions against violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act; Sections 7(f) and 10(b) of the Exchange Act and Rule 10b-5; and Regulation X promulgated by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. In addition, Sloan, Hansen, and C. Hansen consented to pay $6,110,971, $5,392,801, and $359,000, respectively, in disgorgement, plus prejudgment interest, subject to waivers based on their demonstrated inability to pay.

Hansen and Sloan also consented prior to participating in the purchase or sale of any security to provide the clearing agent with copies of the Commission's complaint in civil action number 95 Civ. 9143 (RO) and their respective Final Judgments, and to certify to the Commission staff that they have done so. [SEC v. Jury Matt Hansen, Fergus Sloan, et al., 89 Civ. 5242, RO, SDNY; SEC v. Jury Matt Hansen, Fergus Sloan, Christie Hansen, et al., 95 Civ. 9143, RO, SDNY] (LR-15393)

COMPLAINT FILED AGAINST MARK GATCH AND HENRY SCHMIDT

The Commission announced that it filed a complaint against Mark E. Gatch and Henry Benjamin Schmidt. The complaint alleges as follows:

Gatch and Schmidt were partners in Ben Mar Investments, Inc., an unregistered investment adviser which operated a Ponzi scheme. Ben Mar raised approximately $19.5 million from at least 365 investors through the sale of unregistered securities. Gatch defrauded investors and prospective investors by: reporting false trading profits and failing to disclose losses; making false and misleading statements concerning Gatch's purported trading strategy and risks; and using funds of new and existing Ben Mar investors to pay purported profits and repay principal. Schmidt, among other things, repeated false performance claims without investigation and failed to take steps to monitor Gatch's activities. Both defendants violated Sections 5 and 17(a) of Securities Act, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, and Sections 203(a), 206(1), (2), and (4) of the Investment Advisers Act and Rule 206(4)-2 thereunder.

Simultaneously, and without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Gatch consented to the entry of a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and an administrative order barring him from the securities industry. [SEC v. Mark E. Gatch and Henry Benjamin Schmidt, Case No. C-1-97-599, SSB, SD Ohio, WD] (LR-15394)
