ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

PLAN OF DISGORGEMENT APPROVED

The Commission approved a plan of disgorgement and ordered distribution of disgorgement funds in connection with previously instituted and settled public administrative proceedings against Sharon Bartock. Notice of the plan was issued on January 22, 1999 (Rel. 33-7633). No comments were received. Pursuant to an order entered by the Commission on October 7, 1997, a payment of $10,000 was made by Bartock to the Commission. This amount represents disgorgement and prejudgment interest paid by Bartock as a result of conduct described in the Order. Under the Plan of Disgorgement, the funds will be used to pay 13 investors to whom Bartock offered and sold the unregistered collateral trust bonds of C'est Lestial Waters, Inc. (Rels. 33-7738; 34-41853; File No. 3-9125)

LIBERTY MARKETING FRAUD ON THE ELDERLY PRELIMINARILY ENJOINED

The Commission announced that on September 9 Judge Jerry Buchmeyer, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Texas, granted the Commission's request for a preliminary injunction halting a fraudulent investment scheme targeting senior citizens that has been ongoing since 1992. The Commission's complaint charges that approximately 100 elderly individuals were fleeced of some $2.5 million in the scheme. Under the guise of providing estate and financial planning services, the defendants solicited information about the senior citizens' assets and investments. Upon obtaining this information, the defendants encouraged the senior citizens to liquidate their legitimate investments, including bank certificates of deposit and other safe investments, and to invest the proceeds in phony promissory notes promising higher rates of return. In fact, according to the Commission's complaint, the issuers of the notes had no real business or did not exist and the defendants misappropriated, or stole, most of the elderly investors' funds.

In its complaint, filed August 30, 1999, the Commission alleges that the defendants, Davenport, Reeves, Russell and Roberts, violated antifraud and broker-dealer registration provisions of the federal securities laws. The Commission is seeking a permanent injunction restraining future violations of the federal securities laws; an order requiring disgorgement of all wrongfully obtained profits, with prejudgment interest; and civil penalties against each defendant. [SEC v. Gary Davenport, et al., USDC/ND/TX, Wichita Falls Division, 7:99-CV-185-R] (LR-16276)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST MARIO IACOVIELLO

The Commission announced the filing on September 7 of a final judgment on consent against Mario J. Iacoviello of Vista, California in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. According to the Commission's complaint, filed on May 14, 1998, Iacoviello violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws while employed as a registered representative with the San Diego branch office of La Jolla Securities Corp. by accepting undisclosed compensation for recommending and selling stock in RMS Titanic, Inc. to his clients.

Without admitting or denying the allegations in the Commission's complaint, Iacoviello consented to a permanent injunction against future violations of Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. Iacoviello also consented to pay disgorgement of $30,325 plus prejudgment interest thereon of $16,155.30, subject to a waiver of all but $10,000 based upon Iacoviello's demonstrated inability to pay. [SEC v. Paul V. Montle, LS Capital Corporation, Paul V. Culotta, Carol C. Martino, CMA Noel, Ltd., Mario J. Iacoviello, Ilan Arbel and Europe American Capital Corporation, USDC, SDNY, 98 Civ. 3446, MP] (LR-16277)
