COMMISSION ANNOUNCEMENTS

SEC TO CONDUCT ROUNDTABLE ON INVESTMENT ADVISERS

The Commission announced today that it will conduct a roundtable on Tuesday, May 23, 2000, to discuss a variety of issues relating to investment advisers currently on the Commission's agenda and to seek industry and public input. The roundtable, which is open to the public, will last from 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Seating is limited. Details on the agenda and speakers will be released in the coming weeks.

The Commission has several initiatives on its agenda for this year that promise to dramatically alter the regulatory landscape for advisers. The conference will bring together investment advisers, legal counsel to advisers, investor advocates, representatives from state regulatory bodies, representatives from the NASD, and others to discuss these issues and offer their views.

Chairman Levitt said, "The roundtable is a wonderful opportunity for interested parties to share perspectives with the Commission as it modernizes and improves the investment adviser regulatory regime."

Chairman Levitt will open the roundtable with a keynote address, to be followed by a series of panel discussions moderated by officials from the Commission's Division of Investment Management. Topics of discussion will include:

- modernization of adviser regulation,
- distinctions between advisers and broker-dealers,
- persons excluded from the definition of investment adviser;
- adviser trading practices, including the use of soft dollars and the obligation to seek best execution,
- personal trading and other conflict of interest issues;
- pay-to-play practices,
- advertising and performance reporting, and
- technology and adviser regulation, including a new electronic filing and registration system for investment advisers. (Press Rel 2000-38)

RULES AND RELATED MATTERS

COMMENT PERIOD EXTENDED FOR SELECTIVE DISCLOSURE AND INSIDER TRADING RULE PROPOSALS

The Commission has extended the comment period for its proposed rules regarding selective disclosure and insider trading. The new deadline for submitting public comments is April 28, 2000 (Rels 33-7815, 34-42552, IC-24343, File No. S7-31-99)

ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

INJUNCTION ENTERED AGAINST TUSCHNER & COMPANY, INC.

An Order of Permanent Injunction and other Equitable Relief (Order) was entered against Tuschner & Company, Inc (Tuschner & Company) in SEC v Nicholas A Zahareas, et al, 97 Cv 2859 (District of Minnesota) Tuschner & Company consented to entry of the order of permanent injunction without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint. The complaint alleged that Tuschner & Company associated with Nicholas A Zahareas (Zahareas) from June 1996 to December 1997, without the consent of the Commission, when it knew, or reasonably should have known, that Zahareas was a person subject to an order barring him from association with a broker or dealer The complaint further alleged that, as a result of the wrongful association, Tuschner & Company earned approximately $210,000 00 in gross commissions from sales to customers obtained through its association with Zahareas The order waived payment of disgorgement and did not impose a civil penalty based on the demonstrated inability of Tuschner & Company to pay such relief.

The Honorable David Doty of the U S District Court for the District of Minnesota entered the Order enjoining Tuschner & Company from future violations of Section 15(b)(6)(B)(ii) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. (Rel 34-42556; File No. 3-10165)

CIVIL INJUNCTIVE ACTION AGAINST TWO FORMER OFFICERS OF LASER TECHNOLOGY, INC.

On March 20, the United States Securities and Exchange Commission filed a civil injunctive case against two former officers of Laser Technology, Inc (Laser Tech), a public company based in Englewood, Colorado, for falsifying the company's accounting records and periodic reports filed with the Commission. At the same time, the Commission instituted cease and desist proceedings against Laser Tech and two directors for their roles in the violations. The Commission's complaint in the civil injunctive case alleges that former president and chief executive officer David W Williams and former chief financial officer Pamela J Sevy caused Laser Tech in 1993 to improperly record revenue for speed guns shipped to an Australian distributor. They then engaged in a series of steps for several years to conceal the improper accounting, including the creation and use of a secret bank account. Specifically, Williams, with Sevy's assistance, lent money to the Australian distributor, who used it to pay for the speed guns. Williams and Sevy then caused Laser Tech to repay the loans that Williams and another officer had previously taken out.

The concealment began to unravel in October 1998 when a Laser Tech employee reported the undisclosed bank account to Laser Tech's independent accountants. The independent accountants resigned in December 1998, an event that Laser Tech reported to the public and the Commission on a Form 8-K.

The complaint alleges that Williams and Sevy violated the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws by engaging in the conduct described in the complaint. The complaint further alleges that Williams and Sevy falsified Laser Tech's accounting records and made false statements to Laser Tech's auditors, and that they aided and abetted Laser Tech in making false statements in its public filings and failing to maintain complete and accurate accounting records. The complaint seeks permanent injunctions against Williams and Sevy to prevent future violations of the securities laws, and the imposition of civil penalties against them. Simultaneously with the filing of the case, Williams and Sevy consented to entry of permanent injunctions without admitting or denying the allegations in the complaint, and agreed to pay civil penalties of $25,000 and $10,000 respectively. Williams and Sevy are specifically charged with violations of Sections 10(b) and 13(b)(5) of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rules 10b-5, 13b2-1, and 13b2-2, they are charged with aiding and abetting violations of Section 13(a) and 13(b)(2)(A) of the Exchange Act and Exchange Act Rules 13a-1, 13a-13, and 12b-20.

In the cease and desist proceedings the Commission brought similar charges against Laser Tech, and also alleged that two Laser Tech directors, H DeWorth Williams (David Williams' brother) and Jeremy G Dunne, caused the company to make false statements in public filings by not reporting personal transactions that they had with the company. DeWorth Williams allegedly reimbursed Laser Tech for monies that the company paid to David Williams. Dunne provided some of the funds that David Williams loaned to the Australian distributor, and then was reimbursed by Laser Tech. Laser Tech, DeWorth Williams, and Dunne settled the proceedings by consenting to cease and desist orders without admitting or denying the allegations. For more information on the cease and desist proceedings, see Exchange Act Release Numbers 34-42549, 34-42548, and 34-42547 [SEC v David W Williams and Pamela J Sevy, Civil Action No. 00-B-596, D Colo] (LR-16476, AAE Rel 1238)

CIVIL ACTION AGAINST SHAN HEFLEY

On March 21, the Commission filed a civil action against a registered representative who targeted and defrauded his elderly customers of more than $400,000. The Commission's complaint alleges that, from September 13, 1996, through January 15, 1999, while a registered representative associated with Edward D. Jones & Co., LP, and working in its office in Bowie, Texas, Shan Michael Hefley liquidated, without his customers' knowledge or consent, various investments totaling $405,932. The monies were in the accounts of seven customers ranging in age from 77 to 92 years old. Hefley initially caused these funds to be deposited in his brokerage account or in other Edward Jones' accounts over which he exercised control. The monies were subsequently withdrawn by Hefley or transferred by him to his personal bank account. The misappropriated funds were used for his own personal benefit.

Simultaneous with the filing of the complaint, Hefley consented, on a neither admit or deny basis, to the entry of a Final Judgment permanently enjoining him future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws and requiring him to disgorge $160,516 – the balance of non-reimbursed funds misappropriated by Hefley. The agreed Final Judgment also orders Hefley to pay prejudgment interest of $55,679 and a civil penalty of $55,000.

The Final Judgment permanently enjoins Hefley from future violations of the antifraud provisions of the federal securities laws contained in Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 10b-5 thereunder.

The Commission would like to acknowledge the invaluable assistance of the Texas State Securities Board, as well as that of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. [SEC v. Shan Michael Hefley, Civil Action No. 7:00-CV-048-R, USDC, NDTX, Wichita Falls Division] (LR-16479)

FORMER CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER OF MICRO WAREHOUSE ENJOINED AND BARRED FOR CENTRAL ROLE IN FINANCIAL REPORTING FRAUD; FORMER SENIOR ACCOUNTING MANAGER ENJOINED AND PENALIZED

On March 20, the SEC filed a settled complaint for financial reporting fraud against Eric P. Furman, age 37, of Cooper City, Florida, and Stephen M. Hieber, age 34, of Danbury, Connecticut. Under the settlement, Furman, the former chief accounting officer of Micro Warehouse, Inc., consented to a permanent injunction against violating the securities laws, a bar from acting as an officer or director of a public company, and a bar from appearing as an accountant before the SEC. Hieber, a former senior accounting manager, consented to a permanent injunction against violating the securities laws, and payment of a penalty of $20,000 Micro Warehouse is a catalog seller of personal computers and related software and accessories, headquartered in Norwalk, Connecticut.

According to the complaint, which was filed in the U.S. District Court for the District of Connecticut, Furman and Hieber created the illusion that each quarter the company's financial results met or exceeded projections and analysts' expectations. While the fraudulent scheme lasted, from January 1994 to June 1996, Furman and Hieber caused Micro Warehouse to over-state the profits that it reported to the public by $45 million. Furman and Hieber falsified the company's books and records, primarily those relating to expenses and liabilities for accounts payable, and misled Micro Warehouse's auditors and senior officers regarding the falsified books and records. As a result of the scheme, Micro Warehouse made at least thirteen false filings with the SEC on Forms 10-K, 10-Q and S-3, each of which materially misstated the company's results of operations and financial condition. In 1994 Micro Warehouse over-stated income from operations by $12.2 million, or approximately 27 percent. In 1995 Micro Warehouse over-stated income from operations by $21.5 million, or approximately 29 percent. For the six months ended June 30, 1996, Micro Warehouse over-stated income from operations by $11.5 million, or approximately 100 percent.

Under the settlements, which must be approved by the Court, Furman and Hieber each consent, without admitting or denying the complaint's allegations, to final judgments which restrain and enjoin them from violating or aiding and abetting violations of the antifraud, reporting, books and records, and internal controls provisions of the federal securities laws [Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Sections 10(b), 13(b)(2) and 13(b)(5) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules 10b-5, 12b-20, 13a-1, 13a-13, 13b2-1 and/or 13b2-2 promulgated thereunder]. Furman also consented to a bar from acting as an officer or director of a public company. No civil penalty was imposed against Furman based upon his demonstrated financial inability to pay. Hieber also consented to payment of a civil monetary penalty of $20,000.

As part of his settlement, Furman also consented to a Commission Order which denies him the privilege of practicing before the Commission as an accountant. Pending approval of the settled injunctive action by the Court, the Commission will institute an administrative proceeding against Furman pursuant to the Commission's Rule of Practice 102(e). Furman is a certified public accountant licensed to practice in New York, and Furman will neither admit nor deny the findings in the Commission's Order.

Micro Warehouse previously consented to the issuance of a Commission Order requiring that it cease and desist from committing or causing any violation and any future violations of the antifraud, reporting, books and records, and internal controls provisions of the federal securities laws. For further information, see Securities Act Release No. 33-7707, Exchange Act Release No. 34-41665; Accounting and Auditing Enforcement Release No. 1144, Administrative Proceeding File No. 3-9940, dated July 28, 1999 [SEC v. Eric P. Furman and Stephen M. Hieber, USDC, D. Conn., Civil Action No. 3:00CV520, DJS] (LR-16480, AAE Rel. 1239).
