ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

MOTION FOR SUMMARY AFFIRMANCE DENIED

The Commission has denied a motion of the Division of Enforcement for summary affirmance of the initial decision of an administrative law judge in Christopher A. Lowry, Initial Decision Release No. 190. The law judge found, among other things, that Lowry, the president of Lowry Investors Services, Inc., a registered investment adviser, violated antifraud provisions of the securities laws in connection with his misappropriation of $156,500 from a corporation he controlled. The law judge barred Lowry from association with an investment adviser, and Lowry has sought Commission review of that decision.

In denying the Division's motion, the Commission stated that it already had determined to grant review and established a briefing schedule for Lowry's appeal, and it wished to have the benefit of the parties' views on, among other matters, the appropriate sanctions in the public interest. SEC HALTS ALLEGED FRAUDULENT SECURITIES OFFERING BY WORLD CLASS LIMOUSINES, INC AND 1-800-GET-LIMO, INC OPERATING IN POMPAÑO BEACH, FLORIDA

The Commission announced that on December 5 it filed an emergency federal civil action against World Class Limousines, Inc. (WCL), 1-800-GET-LIMO, Inc. (GET-LIMO) and Anthony P. Caliendo, Jr. (Caliendo), WCL and GET-LIMO's founder, president, chief executive officer and chairman (collectively, defendants). WCL and GET-LIMO are companies providing limousine services and purportedly developing a nationwide Internet limousine reservation network are headquartered in Pompano Beach, Florida. On the same day, the Honorable Adalberto Jordan, United States District Judge for the Southern District of Florida entered, among other things, a temporary restraining order and an asset freeze to halt the alleged on-going unregistered offering of securities by WCL, GET-LIMO and Caliendo. The Court also entered an order appointing a Receiver over WCL and GET-LIMO.

According to the SEC's complaint, WCL, GET-LIMO and Caliendo have been offering securities to investors both across the country and internationally. The complaint alleges that WCL and GET-LIMO have raised approximately $1.9 million dollars from at least 89 investors to develop its limousine businesses but that 32% of these funds were actually used for risky stock trading by Caliendo. Moreover, the complaint alleges that Caliendo has misappropriated at least $55,350 in investor funds for his own personal use. In addition, the complaint alleges that, unbeknownst to investors, WCL and GET-LIMO paid its sales representatives commissions totaling at least $160,000. The SEC further alleged that WCL and GET-LIMO, among other things, misled the public about the security and safety of the investment, the rate of return on the investment, the time frame in which it expected to engage in an initial public offering and about the existence of a purported joint venture which was critical to their Internet strategy.

As a result, the Commission charges WCL, GET-LIMO and Caliendo with violations of Sections 5(a), 5(c), and 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder. The SEC is also seeking in its lawsuit preliminary and permanent injunctions, disgorgement of ill-gotten profits and a civil money penalty against Caliendo. [SEC v. World Class Limousines, Inc., et al., Case No. 01-7834-CIV-JORDAN, S.D. Fla.] (LR-17261)

SEC SETTLES CASE AGAINST FORMER CEO OF DIGITAL LIGHTWAVE, INC.

The Commission announced that the United States District Court for the Middle District of Florida issued an order enjoining Bryan J. Zwan, founder and former Chief Executive Officer of Tampa, Florida based Digital Lightwave, Inc. (Digital), from violating or aiding and abetting violations of certain of the federal securities laws. Among other things, the order enjoins Zwan from violating the provision of the securities laws prohibiting making materially false statements to auditors, and from aiding or abetting books and records violations by public companies. Zwan consented to the entry of the injunction without admitting or denying the allegations of the Commission's complaint. In conjunction with the entry of the injunction, the Court ordered Zwan to pay a $10,000 civil money penalty.

The Commission's settlement with Zwan was the last outstanding action of several matters related to a fraudulent earnings management scheme, books and records violations, and other violations, that the Commission's complaint alleged had taken place at Digital during two quarters in 1997. Without admitting or denying the Commission's allegations, Digital previously consented to an injunction against violating the antifraud, books and records, and other provisions of the federal securities laws. Other individuals who are or had been officers of Digital previously settled administrative proceedings brought by the Commission, without admitting or denying the Commission's findings.

On October 23, 2001, the United States District Court entered a Final Judgment of Permanent Injunction and other Relief as to Bryan J. Zwan (Final Judgment). The Final Judgment enjoins Zwan from aiding and abetting violations of Sections 13(a), 13(b)(2)(A), and 13(b)(2)(B) of the Exchange Act and Rules 12b-20 and 13a-13 thereunder, and from violating Rule 13b2-2 promulgated under the Exchange Act. The Final Judgment also orders Zwan to pay a $10,000 civil money penalty. [SEC v. Digital

SUMMARY JUDGMENT ENTERED AGAINST WILLIAM BRANSTON, PRESIDENT OF INVESTMENT ADVISER TANDEM MANAGEMENT, INC.

The Commission announced that, on November 13, 2001, the Honorable John G. Koeltl, United States District Judge for the Southern District of New York, entered summary judgment against William F. Branston (Branston) of Tandem Management Inc. (Tandem) in a civil injunctive action filed by the Commission on October 2, 1995 against Tandem, and its principals, Branston, Eugene B. Deveney (Deveney), and Peter S. Alsop (Alsop). At the time the Commission filed its complaint, Tandem was a registered investment adviser and Branston was Tandem's President and Chief Investment Officer. The Commission alleged that Branston misappropriated over $1 million in client assets, principally in the form of "soft dollar" credits and commission rebates; distributed false information concerning Branston's past performance returns and Tandem's performance returns and assets under management to clients, investors in a limited partnership fund advised by Tandem, and a national money management ranking publication; filed false Forms ADV; and failed to keep required books and records. The judgment permanently enjoined Branston from violating Section 17(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, Section 10(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rule 10b-5 thereunder, Sections 204, 206(1), 206(2), 206(4), and 207 of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and Rules 204-2, 206(4)-1, and 206(4)-4 thereunder. On September 24, 1999, Branston was criminally convicted of a 16 count indictment based upon the same facts in the Commission's civil injunctive action and is currently serving a term of 37 months imprisonment. The Court previously entered a final judgment on consent against defendant Alsop on August 18, 1997 and a default judgment against defendant Tandem on May 11, 2001. This case, which had been suspended without prejudice due to Branston's criminal proceedings, was restored to the active docket in January 2001 and is pending against remaining defendant Deveney. For further information see LR-14670, LR-15447 and LR-17006. [SEC v. Tandem Management Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 95-CV-8411, SDNY] (LR-17263)
