Comments: I must not "help" you because you didn't help this 93-yr-old invalid against the crooked V.P. of the then Dean Witter, Stephen Bobko-Hillinary, i ordered (as usual by phone) $50,000 worth of tax-exempt Hawaiian Bonds at a discount.
Weeks later i found out the terrorist got me only "Hawaiian Trust" at a huge premium, when i couldn't understand the meaning of 10.59 instead of 99 or so, he had gone to France.
That the SEC allowed such crime & suggested i take a lawyer to "mediate" the matter & Haw. consumer "protectors" ignored my appeal, gave me heart problems. Obviously, the name of "Haw Trust" was designed to deceive very aged laymen. Not only did i lose nearly $2000. i also owed a capital gains tax to the IRS on this fraudulent Mutual Fund. The V.P. of Merrill Lynch in Hilo had done the same to me on a smaller amount. And Bobko-Hillinary continues to drive around in a Y.M.C.A.
van. Your people convinced me that the SEC aristocrats provide over the brokers' deceitful robberies. You outlaw the gambling of little guys but hold court with the Wall Streeters who steal billions from all investors & mostly from pension funds, Bruno Keith
