

Patsy J. Ramsey is the Director of External Reporting for The Dow Chemical Company, with responsibility for Dow's external financial communications, including Dow's annual report to shareholders, Dow's quarterly earnings releases, and all financial filings with the U. S. Securities and Exchange Commission for Dow and Union Carbide Corporation.

Patsy began her Dow career in 1977, and has held several significant financial roles including Finance Director for the Polyurethanes Business, Global Director of Payroll and Benefits Administration, and Cost Controller. While in her current role, Dow received the "Gold" International ARC Award for Dow's Annual Report and honorable mention for "Best Annual Report" by Investor Relations Magazine.

Patsy is involved in several professional and community organizations, including Financial Executives International, Women's Innovation Network, Voluntary Action Center of Midland County, and the Midland Soccer Club.

Patsy has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Arkansas Tech University.